Family

FAMILY CONNECTIONS

Emilia Fox is from England and she is an actor (in films and on TV). Many people in her family are also actors. Both her parents are actors: her father is Edward Fox (a film actor) and her mother is Joanna David (a TV actor). Her grandmother, Angela Worthington, was an actor and her uncle, James Fox, is an actor. James Fox is in many films. In WE, he plays King George V. James's son, Laurence Fox, is in the same film – as King George's son! James's daughter, Lydia Fox, is also a TV actor.

Emilia has got a brother, Freddie Fox, and he too is a TV actor. Emilia's daughter, Rose, was born in 2010, so she is very young. What hopes has Emilia got for her daughter? To be an actor, perhaps?

1a Read about British actor Emilia Fox. Write the names in her family tree.

b Read the article again. How many people in her family are also actors?

Amrita

‘My parents live in a small fishing village 100 km south of Bangalore’

My name is Amrita and I live in Bangalore in India. It's a big city with about 8.5 million people. I live in a flat with my friend Geeta. We study computer studies at the same university. We get up at 7.30 a.m. and we go to university by bus. We start classes at 9.00 a.m. and then finish at 4.30 p.m. In the evenings, we go out a lot. We don't have dinner at home – we go to a restaurant with friends.

My parents are Jairam and Sanjula. They live in a small village 100 km south of Bangalore. They don't live in a flat – they live in a house. They get up very early – at 5.30 a.m. My father and his friends are fishermen. They work for a small company, and they work very long hours. They don't go to work by bus – they walk to the river. In the evenings, they have dinner at home with their families.

Vocabulary Common verbs

1a Work in pairs and look at the photos. Where do you think Amrita is from? Can you describe the places in the photos?

b Read the text about Amrita. Which of the people in the box does she talk about?

her friend her sister her father her mother her grandparents

2a Read the text again. Are statements 1–8 true (T) or false (F)? Correct the false statements.

- 1 Amrita and Geeta live in a house in Bangalore.
- 2 They study at school in Bangalore.
- 3 They go to university by train.
- 4 They have dinner in a restaurant.
- 5 Jairam and Sanjula live in a small city.
- 6 Jairam and his friends get up very early.
- 7 They work for a big company.

Some people are life's winners!

Are you one of life's winners? Are you a winner in your job, in a sport or in life? If so, which of these winning habits do you have?

- 1 Winners are always positive. They see solutions, not problems.
- 2 Winners never, never, never say, think or do negative things!
- 3 Winners are usually early birds. In the morning, on average, successful people get up two hours before the rest of us. But only on weekdays, because at the weekend it's time to relax in bed.
- 4 Winners often have a rest in the afternoon. And in the evening, they make time to relax with friends and family.
- 5 Winners sometimes make mistakes. But they learn from their mistakes, and they never make the same mistake again!

Question

GiorgioX: My girlfriend and I want some advice about our trip to Thailand via Hong Kong. Does anyone know about Hong Kong International Airport (HKIA)? We have a stopover of eight hours there.

Answers

JJB99: HKIA is really amazing! Traveller magazine says it's the world's number one airport, and I can see why. I love it! You can fly direct to more than 160 destinations worldwide from there. But also, it's got great facilities – you can go shopping in the many different shops and you can visit the huge number of restaurants. Some restaurants are open 24 hours. My advice is: enjoy your time shopping and eating!

HarryH: You have an eight-hour stopover, so you've got time for leisure, and maybe sleep! Take your computer, because you can use the free Wi-Fi 24-7. Also, you can play various sports, including golf at the nine-hole golf course near Terminal 1! With all the possibilities, you can't get bored. But, if you get tired, remember you can't sleep in Terminal 1 – but you can sleep in one of the special lounges for a small fee.

TimeFlies: Hi! I'm in HKA now! This airport is really big and has everything you need. In most airports, you can't smoke ... and there is no smoking in Terminal 1. But you can smoke in the special smoking lounges in Terminal 2.

IT'S A FACT!
Hong Kong has about 8,000 skyscrapers. New York has about 4,000.

GRAMMAR

- 1 We use can for things it is possible to do or things we are able to do.

You can fly direct to more than 160 destinations.

You can smoke in Terminal 2.

A: Can you play golf near the airport?

B: Yes, you can.

- 2 We use can't for things it is not possible to do or things we are not able to do.

A: Can you smoke in most airports?

B: No, you can't.

PRONUNCIATION

- 1 Listen again. Notice the pronunciation of can and can't.

- 2 Practise saying the sentences.

- 2 5.5 Listen to Mei Ling talking about things you can and can't do in Hong Kong. Tick the things you can do. Cross the things you can't do.

- travel by tram
- eat and drink on the underground trains
- find a seat easily on the underground trains
- find a taxi quickly
- use a special travel card on all public transport
- buy food and drink with the special travel card

PRACTICE

- 1a Complete the sentences about Hong Kong International Airport with can or can't.

- 1 You _____ eat at all times of the day and night.
- 2 You _____ sleep in Terminal 1.
- 3 You _____ play golf near the airport.
- 4 You _____ smoke in Terminal 1.
- 5 A: _____ you smoke in Terminal 2?
B: Yes, you _____.
- 6 A: _____ you sleep in Terminal 1?
B: No, you _____.

- b 5.4 Listen and check.

- 3 Work in pairs and take turns. Ask and answer questions about a town or city you know, using the ideas in exercise 2. Add two more questions of your own.

Can you travel by tram in your town?

No, you can't.

Task

Do a transport survey

Preparation Reading and listening

1a Work in pairs and discuss.

- Which photo shows a cycle-sharing scheme?
- Which city does it show?

b Read the text below and answer the questions.

- 1 How many bicycles does London's cycle-sharing scheme have?
- 2 What is the popular name for the scheme?
- 3 Why do people call it that?
- 4 How much does it cost to use a bicycle for 30 minutes?
- 5 What is the record number of journeys in one day using the scheme?

London's cycle-sharing scheme started in 2010. The scheme covers a large area of London, with over 8,000 bicycles and 570 stations to keep them in. For a small amount of money, you can take a bicycle from one station and cycle to your destination. You then leave the bicycle in another station. The popular name for the bicycles is 'Boris Bikes', after Boris Johnson, who was the Mayor of London at that time.

One of the main aims of the scheme is to reduce the number of cars and buses on the roads. Every day, thousands of people use Boris Bikes to make short journeys around the city, especially as it is free for less than 30 minutes and £1 for one hour. The record number of journeys in one day is over 47,000 – during the London 2012 Olympics.

2 Work in pairs and discuss.

- Would you like to use Boris Bikes as a tourist in London? Why / Why not?
- Do you know any other cities that have cycle-sharing schemes?
- Can you think of any disadvantages of schemes like this?

3a Look at the transport survey. Write full questions using the prompts in brackets.

- b Write your own question 8, with possible answers a–e.

4a 5.7 Listen to a student answering the questions in the transport survey. Choose the correct answers in the survey.

Healthy diets around the world

Harry Chen is a fitness expert. In his new book, he describes three healthy diets from around the world and tells us what we can learn from them.

A The Japanese diet

People in Japan are generally very healthy and one of the main reasons is fish. The Japanese diet includes a lot of fish, which contains healthy oil. Another reason is that they also eat a lot of fruit and vegetables – for any meal, including breakfast. People in Japan eat less than in other countries. This is because: firstly, people eat small portions on separate small plates, not one big plate. Secondly, some people eat until they are about 80 percent full, then wait for ten minutes to see if they are still hungry. This is called hara hachi bu.

B The Mediterranean diet

Health experts know that a lot of oil in your diet is unhealthy. The Mediterranean diet (for example, in Greece, Italy and Spain) contains a lot of oil, but it is a very healthy diet. This is because they use olive oil, which is good for your heart. Another important factor is that they eat a lot of fruit and vegetables. Vegetables in these countries are often main dishes, not just side dishes. Finally, people in this area eat with family and friends and sometimes a meal lasts several hours. This means people are relaxed and they don't eat too much.

C The South Indian diet

There are many different regions in India with different types of food. The South Indian diet is especially healthy as it contains a lot of fruit and vegetables. There is a long tradition of vegetarian food in this area. They eat some meat, but not much. In South India, they add a lot of herbs and spices, like cinnamon and turmeric, to their cooking. The spices not only make the food delicious and attractive, but they are also good for digestion. Health experts also know that some of these spices can fight diseases, such as heart disease and cancer.

Vocabulary

Food pairs

- 1a Match the words in box A with the words in box B to make word pairs.

A fruit herbs knife salt bread fish sweet tea food

B chips coffee spices pepper vegetables

An ordinary man ... an extraordinary business

Ben Silbermann was an ordinary boy. He was born in 1982 in Iowa in the USA and he loved collecting things: stamps, leaves and especially insects. At the time, he felt like any other child ... but as a young man in his 20s, his love of collecting became big business.

He went to Yale University and studied chemistry and political science. In 2006, when he graduated from university, he moved to the state of California and got a job at Google. Silbermann met a lot of people there who were very interested in technology, and he decided two things: he wanted to start a business and he wanted to do something he loved.

He worked at Google for two years. Then, in 2008, Silbermann left his job and he started his own business with two friends: Paul Sciarra and Evan Sharp. In November 2009, they got an apartment together in Palo Alto, California and started work on Pinterest.

- 3a Work in pairs. Look at the photos and the title of the article about Ben Silbermann. What do you think are his interests? What extraordinary business did he start?

- b Read the article and check your ideas.

- 4 Read the article again and complete the information about Ben Silbermann below.

- 5 Work in groups and discuss.

- How many different websites do you look at every week? Which ones are your favourites?
- Do you post photos online? If so, how many and what kind of photos? If not, why not?
- Do you know anyone who collects things? What do they collect and why?

Silbermann and Sharp realised they both loved collecting, and they made a 'virtual pinboard' – pages online where you 'pin' pictures of things you like and things you 'collect'. Their idea was to connect everyone in the world through the things they find interesting.

And it seemed that a lot of people liked their idea. When Pinterest started in March 2010, it grew quickly and had 10 million users after the first year. This was an amazing number compared with Twitter and Facebook: Twitter took two years to reach 10 million users and Facebook took over five years. Just a year after starting, Pinterest was worth $200 million and had over 421 million page views. Silbermann's ordinary interest as a boy certainly became an extraordinary business.

I saw Men in Black last week. It was fast-moving and very funny.

Queen of Egypt more than 2,000 years ago, Cleopatra is the subject of many books, plays and films ... but what do we really know about her?

Cleopatra: the legend

- According to many people, she was the greatest beauty of ancient times.
- One of the greatest men of the ancient world - Julius Caesar and Mark Antony - both fell in love with her.
- Her favourite luxury was taking baths in milk! She thought this made her even more beautiful.
- She fought against the Romans and after her last battle, she killed herself with a snake.

Cleopatra: the facts

- Cleopatra was Queen of Egypt ... but she wasn't Egyptian, she was Greek!
- No one knows what she looked like. The only original image is from a coin.
- The greatest beauty of the ancient world? You decide ...
- Cleopatra didn't take baths in milk. The Romans only started doing that many years later.
- She didn't fight against the Romans. She fought with one Roman (Mark Antony) against another (Augustus).
- Her most recent biographer says she didn't use a snake to kill herself ... she drank poison instead.

Grammar focus 1

Past simple: negative form

1a Work in pairs. Look at the picture of Queen Cleopatra of Egypt and answer the questions.

- 1 When do you think she lived?
- 2 Can you think of three adjectives to describe her?

b Read the text and check your answers.

GRAMMAR

Past simple: negative form

- 1 We make the Past simple negative form of be with wasn't/ weren't (= was not / were not).
Cleopatra wasn't Egyptian.
- 2 We make the Past simple negative form of other verbs with didn't (= did not) + verb.
She didn't kill herself with a snake.

PRACTICE

1 Work in pairs and discuss. Cleopatra lived around 2,000 years ago. Which things did/didn't people do in those days?

- | | |
|-----------------------|-------------------------|
| • make phone calls | • get married |
| • have baths | • drive cars |
| • listen to the radio | • go to the cinema |
| • wear clothes | • write poems and plays |

They didn't make phone calls

Superlative adjectives

IT'S A FACT!

Harrods is the UK's biggest department store, with 5,000 staff from 50 countries.

1a Work in pairs and look at the photos of three famous department stores: Harrods, Macy's and Shinsegae. Do you know where they are?

b Read about the Shinsegae department store in South Korea. Why is it famous?

2 Read the article again. What do these numbers refer to?

a 190,000 b 300,000 c 95,000 d 14

3 Work in pairs and discuss.

- Would you like to go shopping in Shinsegae? Why / Why not?
- Do you prefer shopping in small shops or large department stores? Why?
- Do you have a department store in your town? Do you like it? Why / Why not?

Shinsegae: A huge shopping experience

Shinsegae in Busan, South Korea is the biggest (and some people say, the best) department store in the world. Thousands of visitors come every day – making it one of the busiest shops in the world. On the opening day in March 2009, 190,000 shoppers spent over $6 million.

Shinsegae means 'new world' in Korean – and the store is one of the newest and most impressive buildings in Busan, with nearly 300,000 m² of shopping space. This means that Shinsegae is bigger than Macy's, the famous store in New York City, by over 95,000 m².

Let's start at the ground floor: here are all the most expensive brands, like Prada and Louis Vuitton. Then, going up the 14 floors of this huge world, you find not only shops and restaurants but also a gym, a cinema, an art gallery and even an ice rink. And right at the top there are restaurants where you can see some of the most beautiful views of Busan.

GRAMMAR

1 Complete the superlative sentences using the adjectives big and expensive.

- Shinsegae in Busan is the _____ department store in the world.

Top five unusual shops

Are you looking for a present for someone? Or do you want to buy something for yourself? Or perhaps you just want to enjoy the shopping experience ... in the most interesting and unusual shops in the world. Here are our top five!

1 If you're looking for something perfect, come to Senbikiya in Tokyo, Japan! Senbikiya is an elegant shop with beautiful things to buy. But you don't buy designer clothes and handbags here. You buy fruit – perfect and very expensive fruit. There are beautiful apples for $25 each, and 12 perfect strawberries cost $82 a box. Yes, it's expensive ... but it's very popular.

2 Or maybe you're looking for something old ... something other people don't want any more? Then Beacon's Closet in New York, USA is the place for you. This is a clothes shop with a difference – an 'exchange' store where people bring clothes they don't want and other people buy them. The clothes are good quality – and cheap! We found a party dress for $20 and a designer coat for $60.

3 Sometimes the building is what makes your shopping experience special; for example, The Old Curiosity Shop in London, England. It is a tiny old shop which Charles Dickens wrote about in 1841. There are lots of big modern buildings around it now, but the shop keeps its old, historical style inside. Nearly 450 years after the shop first opened, it is now a shoe shop with unusual designer shoes.

4 From a tiny building to a huge one: the famous bookshop El Ateneo Grand Splendid in Buenos Aires, Argentina. The shop covers an area of 2,000 m² – and every year it has around a million visitors. In 1919, the building opened as a theatre, but in February 2000, it became one of the biggest – and most beautiful – bookshops in the world, keeping many of the features of the old theatre.

5 Perhaps you want everything: the amazing building and the cool products ... then come to L'Usine in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam. The building is an old clothes factory with big windows and ceiling fans. Inside, there is a café, an art gallery and many interesting things to buy: designer clothes, a vintage bicycle, a colourful watch ... We think this is the coolest shop in the world!

Reading

1a Work in pairs and discuss.

- What is the biggest shop you know?
- What is the smallest shop you know?
- What is your favourite shop? Why?

b Read the article and answer the questions.

Which shop:

- is the biggest?
- is the smallest?
- is the coolest place to be?
- has the most perfect products?
- has the cheapest designer clothes?

2 Read the article again. Are the statements true (T) or false (F)?

- 1 In Senbikiya, you can buy clothes as well as fruit.
- 2 In Senbikiya, strawberries cost $25 each.
- 3 The clothes in Beacon's Closet are second-hand.
- 4 The Old Curiosity Shop first opened in 1841.
- 5 The Old Curiosity Shop is now modern inside.
- 6 Around 1,000,000 people go to El Ateneo Grand Splendid every year.
- 7 El Ateneo Grand Splendid is in an old factory building.
- 8 L'Usine is in an old theatre building.

3 Work in pairs and discuss.

- Which of the shops in the article would you most like to visit? Why?
- Do you like shopping? Why / Why not?
- How often do you go shopping for clothes and shoes? Where do you usually go?

Choose souvenirs from your country

Preparation Listening

- 1 Work in pairs. Look at the photos and discuss.
 - What souvenirs can you see in photos A–E?
 - Which country do you think each souvenir comes from: Canada, Ukraine, Egypt, Scotland or Thailand?
 - When did you last buy a souvenir? What was it? Where did you buy it? Who was it for?

The Taylor family

Bob and Amy Taylor and their two children (Josh, aged 11, and Lorna, aged 8) are from the UK. They often have visitors from different countries staying in their house. They love meeting people from different countries and they love collecting souvenirs from all over the world.

- 2 Read the information about the Taylor family. Where are they from? What do they like doing?
- 3a 9.4 Four people are going to stay with the Taylor family in the UK. Listen to them talking about which souvenirs from their countries they are going to buy for the family.

| | Where does he/she live? | What souvenirs does he/she choose? | How does he/she describe the souvenir? |

1a Work in pairs. Look at the photos of Katie, Marlon, Louisa and Sam at a fancy-dress party and discuss.

- What are Katie, Marlon, Louisa and Sam wearing to the party?
- What do you think is the 'theme' of the party?

b Read the text below and check your ideas.

It's Saturday evening. Normally, when Katie is at work, she wears cool, stylish clothes. Tonight, she looks like a Spanish dancer – she's wearing a red dress and black shoes. She's also got a flower in her hair. Marlon usually wears sports clothes, but this evening he is Sherlock Holmes. He's wearing a suit and the famous Sherlock Holmes hat! Louisa usually wears a smart suit at work, but tonight she looks very different. She is wearing a long white dress and looks like the Statue of Liberty. When Sam is at work, he wears a shirt and tie and he always looks smart. This evening, he's wearing a spaceman costume and is completely covered from head to toe! Why are they all wearing these clothes? They are going to a fancy-dress party to celebrate their friend Susi's birthday. Susi wants everyone to come to the party dressed as someone or something beginning with the letter 'S'.

2 Work in pairs and discuss.

- Which party costume do you like best?
- What costume would you choose for a fancy-dress party beginning with the letter 'S'?

Vocabulary

Describing personality

- 1 Look at the adjectives describing personality in the box below. Which do you think are positive? Which are negative?

| | | | | |
|-----------|------------|--------------|------------|------|
| reliable | confident | friendly | sociable | shy |
| cheerful | moody | bossy | determined | kind |
| organised | easy-going | hard-working | | |

- 2a Choose three adjectives from the box in exercise 1 which you think describe:

- your personality.
- a teacher.
- a businessperson.
- a nurse.
- a shop assistant.

- b Work in pairs and compare your ideas.

- 3 Work in pairs and take turns. Imagine you are one of the people below and describe your appearance and personality.

- a good friend
- someone in your family
- someone you work or study with
- someone who lives near you

Analyse your personality

What do colours say about you?

The colours that we choose in our lives can tell us about our personality. Your favourite colour is often your 'personality' colour. It's the colour that shows your basic character and your strengths. It isn't always the colour you wear all the time – it's the colour you like most.

Let's take a look at each colour. If you like red, you are a confident person who likes a lot of action in your life. Orange means you are a sociable person – you like being in group situations. People who like yellow are usually cheerful – they are often organised, too. If you wear a lot of green, you are probably a kind person who is also quite shy at times. Maybe you like blue – then you are probably an easy-going person; someone who likes a calm, peaceful life. Purple shows that you are reliable and hard-working. People who like black are usually reliable, too – but sometimes they can be bossy. Brown clothes show that you are a kind, friendly person who cares a lot about family and friends. People who wear a lot of white are usually very determined people who like doing things on their own.

Your least favourite colour is also important. It can show what kind of person you would like to be. For example, if you don't like red, then you would probably like to be more confident. If your least favourite colour is orange, maybe you would like to be more sociable. So take a look at the colours you're wearing and see what they say about you!

Preparation Reading and listening

- 1a Work in pairs and write a list of all the colours you can think of.
- b Compare your list with other students and add two more colours to your list.
- c Work in pairs and discuss.
 - Which colours do you like best?
 - Which do you like least?

2 Read the article and choose the correct answers.

- 1 Your 'personality' colour is:
 - a the colour you're wearing now.
 - b your favourite colour.
- 2 Your least favourite colour:
 - a doesn't show much about your personality.
 - b shows an aspect of your personality you would like to improve.

3a 10.4 Listen to two students talking about the information in the article. Answer the questions.

- 1 Which colours do they talk about?
- 2 Do they think the information about personality is correct?

- b Listen again and tick the phrases you hear in the Useful language box.

USEFUL LANGUAGE

a Asking questions

What's your (least) favourite colour?
What colours are you wearing now?
Do you think that's right?
What does that say about me?

b Explaining and interpreting information

(Red) clothes mean you are a confident person.
You like wearing (black), so you're (reliable).
You're probably a (determined) person because you like wearing (white).

c Reacting to information

I think that's absolutely right!
Yes, I'm a (very reliable) person.
I don't think that's right.
No, I'm not very (confident). In fact, I think I'm quite (shy).

Task Speaking

- 1 Work in pairs and take turns. Find out more about your partner's personality using the information in the article. Start by asking, 'What is your favourite colour?' Look at the Useful language box and ask your teacher for any words/phrases you need.

> Useful language a–c

- 2a Work in groups. Tell other students about your personality or your partner's personality.

b Discuss the questions.

- How true was the information about your personality and your partner's personality?
- Do you think this is a good way of analysing someone's personality?

2 Complete the table below with the words/phrases in the box.

- | | |
|------------------------------------|------------------|
| in his early twenties | short hair |
| reading a newspaper | blonde hair |
| carrying a bag | standing up |
| in her teens | good-looking |
| medium-length hair | sitting down |
| holding a book | wearing lipstick |
| a nice person in her late thirties | |

| He/She is ... | He/She has got ... |
|-----------------------|--------------------|
| in his early twenties | |

3 Read the description below. Which person in the photos do you think it is?

This person is good-looking. She's probably in her late thirties. She's slim and she's got medium-length curly hair. She's got blue eyes and she's wearing red lipstick and a small pair of earrings. Her clothes are casual; she's wearing a light green T-shirt and trousers which are the same colour. She's sitting down and she's holding a book, but she's not reading it at the moment. She's looking at the camera and smiling. I think she's a kind, friendly person.

4 Write a description of one of the other people in the photos or someone in your class. Include information about:

- general impression / age.
- hair, eyes, etc.
- clothes.
- what he/she is doing at the moment.
- his/her personality.

AFTER UNIT 10 YOU CAN ...

Talk about present activities.

Describe people's clothes, appearance and personality.

Ask for goods and services (e.g. in shops and at the hairdresser's).

Write a description of a person.

NATURE

IN THIS UNIT

- Grammar: Question words;
Quantifiers: a lot of, a little, a few, not any, not much, not many
- Vocabulary: Animals and natural features; Big numbers
- Task: Devise a general knowledge quiz
- World culture: Animals in danger

IT'S A FACT!

Dogs can't see colours. At traffic lights, guide dogs look at the traffic – not the lights.

Vocabulary Animals and natural features

1a Work in pairs and look at the photos. Which of the things in the box can you see?

| | | | | | |
|------------|-------|----------|----------|---------|--------|
| dog | camel | mountain | horse | donkey | desert |
| llama | beach | ocean | elephant | volcano | fish |
| chimpanzee | snake | forest | rat | lake | valley |
| dolphin | sea | river | whale | | |

b Put the words in the box into the categories below.

- animals
- natural features

c Add more words to each category.

2 Work in pairs and discuss.

- Which animals in exercise 1a are common in your country?
- Which natural features in exercise 1a do you have in your country? Do you ever visit any of them?

WORKING ANIMALS

There are countless animals that help us in our everyday lives. From dogs to elephants, fish to llamas, we use animals in so many different ways.

People use animals to carry people or heavy loads – sometimes for long distances, across mountains and deserts.

- In many countries, this is often the job of horses and donkeys.
- In South America, they often use llamas; and in North Africa, camels. Camels can carry up to 450 kg (that's the weight of an average cow!) and walk up to 65 km a day.
- In South-East Asia, people use elephants not only to carry things but also to pull trees in the forests. Elephants are extremely strong and can pull up to 1,500 kg (that's the weight of a medium-sized car!).

Dogs are very popular as pets, but they also have a huge number of uses.

- Dogs can help people with different disabilities. There are guide dogs to help people who can't see (e.g. to cross a road) and hearing dogs to help people who can't hear (e.g. to hear the doorbell).
- Dogs are useful in rescue situations, too. They can look for people lost under snow or collapsed buildings.
- Farmers use dogs to keep their sheep and cows under control. The police use dogs to help catch criminals.
- Sniffer dogs do another important job – using their sense of smell to help find drugs and other illegal things at airports.

People also use animals for more surprising things.

- 'Reading' dogs listen to children read, giving those children more confidence.
- You can relax with 'fish therapy', as the fish eat dead skin off your feet.
- In some countries, people train rats to help detect dangerous explosives on land.
- People use dolphins in a similar way to detect dangerous explosives in the sea.

Reading

1a Work in pairs. Look again at the photos. What kind of work do you think these animals do?

b Read the article. Which animals from Vocabulary exercise 1a are mentioned?

2 Read the article again and answer the questions.

Which animal can:

- 1 help people cross a road?
- 2 improve the skin on your feet?
- 3 find illegal items like drugs?
- 4 carry heavy loads in South America?
- 5 look for missing people?
- 6 help children learn to read?
- 7 look for dangerous items at sea?
- 8 transport trees in South-East Asia?

3 Work in pairs and discuss.

- Which of the working animals in the article are you surprised about?
- Do you know about any other working animals? What do they do?

Listening Intelligent animals

1 Work in pairs and discuss.

- What experience of pets do you have?
- What experience of wild animals do you have?
- Which of the animals in the photos do you think is the most intelligent? In what way?

2a 11.1 Listen to a radio programme about intelligent animals. Number the animals in the order you hear them.

- dogs
- parrots
- whales
- dolphins
- chimpanzees

b Listen again. Which things can each animal do?

- speak to each other
- speak like humans
- paint pictures
- use computers
- remember names
- remember numbers

3 Work in pairs and answer the questions.

- 1 Which animal on the radio programme impressed you the most? Why?
- 2 How good are you at remembering:
 - names of people you meet?
 - friends' birthdays?
 - phone numbers?
 - PIN numbers (for bank cards, etc.)?

Vocabulary Big numbers

1 Match the numbers in A with how you say them in B.

| A | B |
|-----------------|-------------------------|
| 1 50 | a five thousand |
| 2 500 | b five billion |
| 3 505 | c five hundred |
| 4 5,000 | d five million |
| 5 50,000 | e five point five |
| 6 500,000 | f five hundred thousand |
| 7 5,000,000 | g fifty thousand |
| 8 5,000,000,000 | h fifty |
| 9 5.5 | i five hundred and five |

2 11.2 Listen and write down the nine numbers you hear.

PRONUNCIATION

- 1 Listen again to the numbers and notice the pronunciation.
- 2 Practise saying them.

GRAMMAR

Question words with two words (how + another word)

1 Match the question words in A with the answers in B.

- | | |
|---|-----------------|
| A | B |
| 1 How far (e.g. New York to Los Angeles) | a five |
| 2 How fast (e.g. top speed of this car) | b 65 kg |
| 3 How long (e.g. this TV programme) | c 80 kph |
| 4 How many (e.g. my family members) | d 1 m 65 cm |
| 5 How much (e.g. your weight) | e 25 years |
| 6 How old (e.g. your brother) | f 3,900 km |
| 7 How tall (e.g. you) | g about an hour |

what and which

- 2 We use what when there are many possible answers.
What is the approximate rat population of New York City?
- 3 We use which when there are a limited number of possible answers.
Which country has got the largest number of active volcanoes?

2 Work in pairs and take turns. Ask and answer the questions in exercise 1 without looking at Vocabulary exercise 3a. How many answers can you remember?

3a Make questions using words/phrases from columns A and B. You can also use words/phrases from columns C and D, if necessary.

How old are you?

How far do you walk every week?

| A | B | C | D |
|--------------------|---------|-------|-------------|
| How old | are you | like | every day |
| How tall | do you | swim | every night |
| How fast | can you | study | every week |
| How far | | run | |
| How long | | walk | |
| How much water | | speak | |
| How many languages | | play | |
| What kind of food | | drink | |
| Which sports | | sleep | |

b Work in pairs and take turns. Ask and answer your questions.

How far do you walk every week?

I walk about ten kilometres every week.

Unit 11, Study & Practice 1, page 158

3a Look at sentences 1–9. Try to guess the number that belongs in each gap.

- The approximate number of active volcanoes in the world is _____.
- The country with the largest number of active volcanoes is Indonesia, with over _____.
- The approximate top speed of a killer whale is nearly _____ kilometres per hour.
- The average distance that killer whales swim every year is _____ kilometres.
- The height of some giant redwood trees in California is over _____ metres.
- Camels can survive without water in temperatures of 50°C for approximately _____ hours.
- The average weight of a male African elephant is _____ kilograms.
- The approximate rat population of New York City is _____.
- Damascus in Syria is perhaps the world's oldest city – it is _____ years old.

b 11.3 Listen and check.

Question words

1 Choose the correct question words.

- How many / How much active volcanoes are there in the world?
- Which / How many country has got the largest number of active volcanoes?
- How far / How tall are some of the giant redwood trees in California?
- What / How fast can killer whales swim?
- How far / How old do killer whales swim every year on average?
- How much / How long can camels survive without water in temperatures of 50°C?
- How much / How many does a male African elephant weigh on average?
- What / Which is the approximate rat population of New York City?
- How much / How old is the city of Damascus?

Listening South Africa

1 Work in pairs. Look at the photos and discuss. How much do you know about the Republic of South Africa? Think about the topics below.

- famous places
- wildlife (animals and plants)
- weather
- natural features (mountains, volcanoes, etc.)

2a  11.4 Aletta works for the South African Tourist Board. Listen to her talking about places to visit. Tick the topics you hear in exercise 1.

b Listen again and choose the correct answers.

- How many species of plant can you find on Table Mountain?
a 150 b 1,000 c 2,200
- How high are the Tugela Falls?
a 800 m b 850 m c 950 m

- How fast can a cheetah run?
a 60 kph b 80 kph c 100 kph
- How many years old is the Salpeterkop volcano?
a 66 million b 60 million c 6 million

3 Work in pairs and discuss.

- Would you like to visit South Africa? Why / Why not?
- What do you think is most interesting about South Africa?
- What is similar to and different from your country?

Grammar focus 2

Quantifiers: a lot of, a little, a few, not any, not much, not many 1a Choose the correct answers.

- There isn't / aren't many countries in the world where you can see all these amazing things.
- If you only has / have a little time, here are four places you really must visit!
- Table Mountain has / have a lot of different varieties of plants.
- There isn't / aren't much chance of winning that race!
- There isn't / aren't any active volcanoes in South Africa.
- There is / are a few volcanoes; for example, the Salpeterkop volcano.

b Look at audio script 11.4 on page 173 and check your answers.

GRAMMAR

1 Complete the table with the underlined phrases in audio script 11.4 on page 173. You can use the same phrase more than once.

| | with countable nouns (and plural verb) | with uncountable nouns (and singular verb) |
|-----------------------|--|--|
| Large quantity/number | 1 a lot of | 2 _____ |
| Small quantity/number | 3 _____ 4 _____ | 5 _____ 6 _____ |
| Zero quantity/number | 7 _____ | 8 not any |

PRACTICE

1 Choose the correct answers.

The Kalahari Desert is a huge desert area in Botswana, Namibia and South Africa. Its name comes from the word kgala, which means 'place where there isn't a few / any / many rain'. In fact, a little / a few / not many rain falls there. There is only about 76–190 mm a year, which isn't much / many / any rain. But even so, you can see a few / a lot of / any wildlife: there are a lot of / a little / not much types of tree – such as acacia trees – and the spring rain brings flamingos to the region.

There aren't many / a few / a little people living there, but you can still see a few / a little / any Bushmen. The Bushmen, or San, have lived in the area for thousands of years. Because there is only a few / a little / a lot of water, they get most of their liquids from gathering plants and desert fruits.

2a Use the ideas below to make true sentences about your country.

|-------------------------------|-----------------------|--|--|
| In _____ (name of country) | there is there are | a lot of a little a few not any not much not many | snow rain deserts lakes dangerous wildlife high mountains active volcanoes |
|-------------------------------|-----------------------|--|--|

In Brazil, there isn't much snow. There is a little snow in the winter on the high mountains in the south.

- I'm not going to _____ on Monday.
- I'm going to _____ on the beach!
- We're going to _____ a lot of special food.
- We're going to _____ a lot, too.

GRAMMAR

1 To talk about future intentions, we often use be + going to + verb.

|---|--|
| + | I'm going to wear my new party dress. |
| - | I'm not going to do anything. |
| ? | Are you going to drive to the wedding? When are you going to make a cake? |

2 With the verb go, we usually use be + going.
I'm going to a friend's wedding.
NOT I'm going to go to a friend's wedding.

PRACTICE

1a Complete the sentences with one word in the correct place.

My brother ^{is} going to cook a family meal tonight.

- I'm going have a party this weekend.
- My parents going to decorate the house next week.
- I going to have a holiday abroad this summer.
- I'm going buy some new clothes this weekend.
- My friends and I going to have a picnic tomorrow.

Weather and seasons

1 Work in pairs and discuss.

- How many seasons are there in your country (e.g. spring, summer, autumn, winter, wet season, dry season)?
- Which seasons are January, April, July and October in?

2 Match the phrases in the box with pictures A–L.

It's cloudy. It's snowing. It's foggy.
It's warm. It's sunny. It's raining.
It's hot. It's cool. It's windy.
It's cold. It's wet. It's icy.

3 Work in pairs and answer the questions.

- 1 What is the weather like today?
- 2 Is the weather usually like this at this time of year?
- 3 What is your favourite season?
- 4 What is the weather like at that time?
- 5 Why do you like it?

CELEBRATING THE SEASONS

The Sapporo Snow Festival is one of Japan's most exciting winter events – held for seven days in February. The festival started in 1950 with a group of students making sculptures with snow and ice in the park. Now, over two million people come to Sapporo to see around 400 huge sculptures. They are usually of famous people, buildings or events, and teams from different countries take part in a competition, with prizes for the best sculptures.

Reading

1a Work in pairs. Look at the photos of festivals in different seasons and discuss.

- Which season do you think people are celebrating in each photo?
- Which country do you think each festival is in?

b Read the article and check your answers.

2 Read the article again. Are the statements below true (T) or false (F)?

- 1 The Sapporo Snow Festival lasts for one week in February.
- 2 Two million people create amazing sculptures out of snow and ice.
- 3 March 22nd is the longest day of the year.
- 4 During the festival of Novruz Bayram, people go to the theatre to see plays.
- 5 In Sweden, people always celebrate Midsummer's Day on June 24th.
- 6 People think that bringing flowers into the house is lucky.
- 7 Harvest festivals are most popular along the East Coast of the USA.
- 8 The main focus of harvest festivals is to celebrate food produced in the area.

3 Work in pairs and discuss.

- Which festival do you think sounds the most interesting?
- Do you have any similar festivals in your country? What are they? What do people do and wear?

In March, people in parts of Azerbaijan, Iran and Turkey celebrate the beginning of spring with the festival of Novruz Bayram. Around March 22nd, the day and the night are equal length, and people celebrate the fact that plants are starting to grow again after the winter. People light candles and share traditional food, and there are special theatre performances in the street. It is also traditional for children to go from door to door asking for sweets.

People celebrate Midsummer's Day all over the world, but it is particularly important in Sweden. Swedish people celebrate on the Friday and Saturday nearest to June 24th by dancing round a huge maypole. There is traditional music and people wear traditional costumes. They also wear crowns made of wild flowers. Special food, like the year's first strawberries, is on the menu, and people decorate their houses with flowers to bring good luck for the year ahead.

Harvest festivals in the autumn are very popular in the USA, especially in the north-east of the country, where the autumn trees are beautiful. Harvest festivals are usually held in October and they are about celebrating local food. There are always incredible displays of food, such as apples, pumpkins and garlic. Children dress up in traditional costumes and take part in parades, and there are pony rides, entertainers and plenty of traditional music.

Writing

Information to promote a festival

1a Look at the photos and discuss.

- What can you see in the photos?
- Where do you think this festival takes place?
- What do you think they are celebrating?

b Read the text about the Boi Bumbá festival and check your answers.

2 Read the text again and decide if the statements below are true (T) or false (F).

- 1 The festival happens at the end of June.
- 2 There is only one Boi Bumbá festival in Brazil.
- 3 Dressing up is a big part of the festival.
- 4 There are four nights of parades and shows.
- 5 The parades are also a competition.
- 6 You must buy tickets in advance for the festival.

3 Read the text again and match paragraphs 1–3 with descriptions a–c.

- a tickets / accommodation / getting there
- b what the festival is / what you can do and see
- c when and where the festival is going to take place

4 Think about the festival you planned on page 110. You are going to write some information to promote your festival. First, make notes about your festival using the paragraph descriptions (a–c) in exercise 3.

5 Write about your festival using your notes.

BOI BUMBA FESTIVAL

This year, the Boi Bumbá festival is going to take place from 27–30th June. There are many Boi Bumbá festivals in Brazil, but the one in our town, Parintins, is the biggest and the best!

In English, the words boi bumbá mean 'beat the bull'. The festival is about the story of a bull which comes back to life. To celebrate this, the town divides into two teams and everyone dresses up in fantastic costumes. This year, as usual, everyone is going to get together in the town centre to watch the two teams put on spectacular shows for three nights. There are colourful parades and a lot of dancing and singing. After the parades, the city has food, drink and a big party for everyone. On the fourth day, we're going to find out who the winning team is. It's very exciting!

You don't need to buy tickets for the Boi Bumbá festival, but you need to book early to find somewhere to stay for the three nights. Phone the Tourist Office for details on: 55-41-3351-6778.

Speaking

Suggestions and offers

1 Work in pairs. Look at the photo and discuss. What things can you do to celebrate a birthday?

2a Watch the video. How many different ideas do you hear for the woman's birthday?

b Watch again and number suggestions a–f in the order you hear them.

- a Let's go there ...
- b Why don't we ... ?
- c Shall I ... ?
- d Why don't you ... ?
- e How about ... ?
- f Where shall we ... ?

c Where do the friends decide to go to in the end?

3a Put the words in the correct order to make and respond to suggestions and offers.

- 1 for a meal / Why / we / don't / go out ?
- 2 Where / go / we / shall ?
- 3 about / Thai Kitchen / How ?
- 4 bowling / go / Let's !
- 5 That / sounds like / good idea / a
- 6 phone / some tickets / and book / I'll
- 7 Shall / to come / I / ask Ben if / he wants ?
- 8 then / Yes, / OK

b Watch and listen to the key phrases and check your answers.

PRONUNCIATION

1 Watch and listen again to the key phrases.

2 Practise saying them.

4a Work in pairs. Write a short conversation for one of the situations below. Include at least three different suggestions.

- You are arranging a night out at the cinema with a friend.
- An old friend is coming to visit for the weekend. Make some suggestions where to take him/her.
- You are planning a leaving party for a colleague.

What shall we do tonight?

How about going to the cinema?

That's a good idea!

b Practise your conversation.

AFTER UNIT 12 YOU CAN ...

Talk about your future plans and intentions.

Talk about plans for a festival in your town or region.

Subject Hi Eva!

Hi Eva!

I told you before that my job is a bit boring and that I really want to teach geography in a secondary school. Well, I've decided to do it!

Before I can get a job as a teacher, I have to do a training course and get the right qualifications. And the thing is, I can't afford to leave work while I do the training. But I've found a college where I can do a part-time course, so I don't have to stop work completely. It's a two-year course and I have to go to college evenings and weekends. I also have to do a lot of studying at home.

The college is near where I live, so I don't have to travel very far, which is good. It starts next month ... I'm really excited about it all!

How is your new course? Do you have to do a lot of homework? Write soon and tell me all about it.

Daniel

From slates to iPads ...

Language learning then, now and in the future

Then ...

It's 6 a.m. on a Monday morning 500 years ago – time for lessons to start at the local grammar school. The main aim of the lesson is to study the grammar of Latin – the international language of the time (in Europe, at least) and the language of all university courses. The pupils are all boys – if girls receive any education at all, they get it at home. The boys take out their slates – there will be no pencil and paper until the 19th century. They learn grammatical rules and translate sentences, and the boys have to speak Latin at all times. If they fail at all, their punishment is up to 50 strokes of the cane!

Now ...

No one knows how many people are learning English today – one common estimate is one billion people, or a third of the world's population. Technology has become more and more important in how people learn: cassettes (which first became popular in the 1970s), CDs and video have brought 'real English' into the classroom. Many classrooms have internet access, video facilities and interactive whiteboards. But in most cases, one thing hasn't changed ... there's still a teacher!

In the future ...

Who knows what the language classroom of 2050 will be like. Many people think that textbooks might be a thing of the past very soon. And many classrooms won't have cassettes or CDs in the near future. Will students use iPads or smartphones instead of pen and paper? Will computers replace teachers? Other people think that English might not be as popular as it is now. Will Chinese, perhaps, or even a completely new international language designed by computers replace English? There is one thing that is for sure: technology will be at the centre of tomorrow's language education.

Textbooks might be a thing of the past very soon ...

Reading

1 Work in pairs and discuss.

- Do most people in your country learn foreign languages? Why?
- Which language(s) do people learn?
- At what age do they start?
- What technology do you use in your school? How do you think technology helps learners?

2 Read the article about language learning. Which of these things are mentioned?

- studying grammar
- learning French
- using the internet
- using languages at work
- training to be a teacher
- learning Chinese

3 Read the article again. Match the sentence halves.

A

- 1 Another language might replace English
- 2 People started using audio cassettes
- 3 Latin was the international language
- 4 People started using pencil and paper
- 5 About one billion people study English
- 6 Textbooks might disappear

B

- a about 50 years ago.
- b in the 16th century.
- c in the 19th century.
- d very soon.
- e some time in the future.
- f now.

4 Work in pairs and discuss.

- How was language learning different in your country 500 years ago?
- What are language-learning classrooms like in your country now?

Write up your research

- 6 Write about one of the people you researched. Use the example below to help you.

Carlos Acosta is probably one of the world's most famous ballet dancers. He came from a poor family and was one of 11 children.

He studied at the Cuban National Ballet School, and then danced with the Houston Ballet in the USA and with the Royal Ballet in London.

I think his greatest achievement was writing his own ballet, Tocororo – A Cuban Tale. It is the story of a poor Cuban boy who travels to the big city.

I admire him because he is talented and successful, but he never forgets his early life.

AFTER UNIT 13 YOU CAN ...

Talk about your education and career.

Discuss things you have to and don't have to do.

Predict what will/might happen in the future.

Discuss what job you (and others) are most suited for.

Research famous people online.

Elaine Massey I've had the most boring weekend ever so far! I hope it changes but nothing has happened at all ... The highlight so far: watching Central Hospital on TV!! ☹
7 people like this

Aaron Jakes I know how you feel! I've made five phone calls to my bank so far today ... and I've spent at least three hours on hold listening to stupid music!! Really annoying!

Johnny Dee Central Hospital ... that's rubbish! My sister has watched 12 (!!!) episodes of Central Hospital so far this weekend. She hasn't done anything except watch TV all weekend!

Chrissie Leaning Poor you! My weekend hasn't been exactly exciting either, but I'm pleased because I've written 1,000 words of my end-of-term assignment ... only another 3,000 words to go! ☺

Leo Taylor Why don't you get a Kindle and read a good book! I love my new Kindle! It's great ... I'm going to read lots of classic books. I've downloaded War and Peace ... but I haven't read any of it!

Jayne Michaels No sympathy! I've been at work all weekend ... and I'm still here!

Write a comment ...

2a Complete the sentences with have, haven't, has and hasn't.

- I _____ had the most boring weekend ever so far!
- My sister _____ watched 12 episodes of Central Hospital so far this weekend.
- She _____ done anything except watch TV all weekend.
- I _____ downloaded War and Peace ... but I _____ read any of it!
- I _____ been at work all weekend ... and I'm still here!

b Read the comments again and check your answers.

GRAMMAR

1 Look again at the sentences in exercise 2a. Choose the correct answers to complete the rules below.

- We use the Present perfect to describe actions that started in the past and are finished / not finished at the time of speaking.
- With the Present perfect, we say / don't say the exact time.

2 We often use these words/phrases to talk about the time period.

so far so far this weekend this afternoon
today this morning

3 We form the Present perfect with have/has + past participle. Look again at the sentences in exercise 2a and find two regular past participles and two irregular past participles.

4 Look again at the comments in exercise 1 and underline more examples of the Present perfect.

PRACTICE

1a Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verb in brackets and make them true for you.

- I _____ (make) _____ phone calls so far today.
- I _____ (send) _____ text messages so far this week.
- I _____ (spend) _____ hours on my computer so far this week.
- I _____ (write) _____ letters so far this month.
- I _____ (watch) _____ DVDs this week.
- I _____ (read) _____ books this year.
- I _____ (receive) _____ emails today.
- I _____ (take) _____ photos today.

b Work in pairs and compare your sentences.

IT'S A FACT!

In 2011, people around the world sent about 7 trillion text messages.

Mind-blowing facts about modern communication

- The internet holds about 5 million terabytes of data. That's about the same as 1 million human brains. According to experts, there are about 2 billion internet users in the world. 70% of people in developed countries go online, but only 20% of people in developing countries can access the internet.
- The average internet user has 25 online accounts and logs on 8 times a day. 30% of internet users have just 1 password for all their online accounts, and the most common password is 'password1'. About 55% of users choose words which have some personal meaning, and 15% write down both their password and username.
- Many people use Wi-Fi hotspots in public places, such as cafes, airports and hotels. 46% of them are worried about viruses and hackers. Many people type in personal information while using public Wi-Fi: 22% regularly type in email passwords, 21% log on to Facebook and 8% do online banking, but they are unaware of how to be totally secure.
- The first computer virus appeared in 1981. The first virus to affect mobile phones appeared in 2005. And the first anti-virus software came out in 1990. There are now about 6,000 new computer viruses every month.
- 87% of internet users go online with their smartphone at least once a day. About 80% keep their smartphone switched on 24/7 and 23% use it during mealtimes.
- 500,000,000 people in the world have a Facebook account – that's about one in every 13 people. The average user has 130 'friends', and 48% of adults check their Facebook page as soon as they wake up in the morning. Every 20 minutes, Facebook users around the world upload 2,716,000 photos.

Reading and vocabulary Technology

1a Work in pairs and try to answer the questions.

- How many internet users are there in the world?
 - half a billion
 - one billion
 - two billion

- b Work in pairs and take turns. Ask and answer the questions.
- c Which fact in the article do you think is the most surprising? Why?

Grammar focus 2

Present perfect (with ever)

1 14.1 Listen to three conversations and answer the questions.

Conversation 1

- 1 How many online accounts has the woman got?
- 2 Does she write down her passwords?

Conversation 2

- 3 When did the woman lose her mobile phone?
- 4 Where did someone steal the man's mobile phone?

Conversation 3

- 5 What is wrong with the woman's computer?
- 6 What important things has she got on her computer?

2 Listen again and complete the questions and answers.

Conversation 1

- 1 Have you ever _____ your password?
- 2 Yes, I _____ ... many times. I can only remember it when I write it down!

Conversation 2

- 3 _____ you ever lost your mobile phone?
- 4 No, I _____. I've never lost it, but someone stole it once.

Conversation 3

- 5 Have you _____ had a virus on your computer?
- 6 Yes, I have. I've _____ two or three, I think.

GRAMMAR

We use ever with the Present perfect to ask about things you have done at 'some time in your life up to now'. The time period we are talking about is 'your life', which isn't finished. We don't need to say exactly when the things happened (it is not important).

1 Look at the sentence pairs below. Which question or answer is correct (a or b)?

- 1a Have you bought ever clothes online?
b Have you ever bought clothes online?
- 2a Yes, I have.
b Yes, I have bought.
- 3a No, I haven't.
b No, I haven't ever.

PRONUNCIATION

1 14.2 Listen to the questions and answers in exercise 2. Notice the pronunciation of have:

- 1 in the questions with weak forms /ə/.
Have you ever ...?
- 2 in the answers with strong forms /æ/.
Yes, I have.
No, I haven't.

2 Listen again and practise saying the questions and answers.

PRACTICE

1a Use the prompts to make questions with the Present perfect and ever.

use video chat

Have you ever used video chat?

- 1 buy anything online
- 2 lose your mobile phone
- 3 make a phone call in English
- 4 spend more than a week without a phone/computer
- 5 do a dangerous sport
- 6 stay awake for the whole night
- 7 study in a foreign country

b Write three more questions of your own.

2 Work in pairs and take turns. Ask and answer the questions in exercise 1.

Have you ever used video chat?

Yes, I have ... I often use video chat with my sister in the USA.

Task

Take part in a game

Talk for a minute!

Talk for a minute!

NUMBER OF PLAYERS: 2+

EQUIPMENT NEEDED: Game board, topics and questions (page 137), a watch or timer

AIM: To 'take' as many squares as you can by talking for a minute about the topics/questions related to the letters on the board

RULES OF THE GAME

- 1 The youngest player starts. The next player is the person on his/her left.
- 2 Take turns to choose a letter on the board. When you have chosen a letter, look at page 137 for the topic starting with that letter. You then have a minute to talk about the questions related to that topic.
- 3 The other players time one minute and say 'Stop!' when one minute is up.
- 4 If you can speak for a minute about the questions, you can 'take' that square by writing your name on it. No other player can 'take' that square.
- 5 If you can't speak for a minute about the topic, the square stays blank. Other players can choose that letter to speak about if they want.
- 6 Continue to take turns to choose letters on the board until all the squares are 'taken' (when all the squares have the names of the players on them).
- 7 The winner is the player who has 'taken' the most squares.

USEFUL LANGUAGE

a Giving yourself time to think

So, let me think.
Right, let's see then.
So, the question is ...
I'm going to talk about ...
I want to talk about ...

b Expanding your ideas

What I mean is, ...
What else?
So, is there anything else?
Another thing I'd like to say is ...
Some other examples of this are ...
... and things like that.

Preparation Reading and listening

- 1 Look at the game and read the rules. Then answer the questions.

- 1 How many people can play the game?
- 2 What do you need to play the game?
- 3 How do you win the game?

- 2a  14.3 Listen to two people playing the game and answer the questions.

- 1 Which letter/topic does the woman choose?
- 2 Does she manage to speak for a minute and 'take' the square?

- b Listen again and tick the phrases you hear in the Useful language box.

Task Speaking

- 1a Work in small groups. Make sure you understand the rules and have got all the equipment you need. Decide who is going to start. Ask your teacher for any words/phrases you need.

- b Play the game.

> Useful language a and b

- 2 Did you find it easy or difficult to talk for a minute? Who was the winner?

SHARE YOUR TASK

Practise talking about one of the topics from the game.

Film/Record yourself talking about one of the topics from the game.

Share your film/recording with other students.

STUDY 1

Present simple: positive and negative (he/she/it)

- In the he/she/it positive form of the Present simple, we add -s to the verb.
He lives in London.
She hates dogs.
It opens at 5 o'clock.
- These are the spelling rules for he/she/it.

| Verb | Rule | Example |
|-------------------------------|-------------------|--|
| most verbs | add -s | Paul wants a new car. Beth comes from the USA. |
| ends in consonant + -y | change -y to -ies | This airline flies to Poland. |
| ends in: -ch, -sh, -s, -x, -z | add -es | Andy watches a lot of TV. Fran finishes work at 5.30 p.m. |
| do and go | add -es | My manager goes home at 9.00 p.m. Pat does all the housework. |
| have | has | He has breakfast at 7.00 a.m. |

- We form the negative with doesn't (= does not) + verb.
He doesn't eat meat.
NOT He doesn't eats.
She doesn't like coffee.
It doesn't open on Sundays.

| | | |
|---|-----------|--|
| + | He/She/It | likes dogs. goes to the park. |
| - | He/She/It | doesn't like (= does not like) Chinese food. doesn't eat (= does not eat) fish. |

Likes/dislikes with nouns and -ing

When we talk about things we like and don't like, we can use the verbs like, love and hate followed by either a noun or the -ing form of a verb.

- He likes playing football with his friends.*
They don't like dogs.
I hate watching sport on TV.
She loves chocolate.

PRACTICE 1

1 Countable and uncountable nouns

| Countable nouns | Uncountable nouns |
|-----------------|-------------------|
| eggs | milk |
| apples | butter |
| books | money |
| dogs | music |

- We can use countable nouns in the singular or plural.
Have you got a cat? Do you like cats?
- Uncountable nouns do not have a plural.
Do you like classical music?
NOT Do you like classical musics?

Note: A dictionary usually says if a noun is countable or uncountable.

REMEMBER!

Bread, toast, cake, milk, fruit juice, water, coffee and tea are all uncountable nouns, but we can talk about:

- a piece of bread/toast/cake.
- a glass of milk / fruit juice / water.
- a cup of coffee/tea.

We can also talk about a coffee (= a cup of coffee) and two teas (= two cups of tea).

2 there is and there are

| | Singular | Plural |
|---|-----------------------------------|------------------------|
| + | There's a cup. | There are six plates. |

3 some and any*SOME

- We use some in positive sentences when we don't say exactly how many or how much.
Have some grapes!
There's some soup and bread for lunch.
- some* = a small number / a small amount Notice the difference:
some onions a lot of onions
some money a lot of money

ANY

- We usually use any or no in negatives with plural and uncountable nouns.
I haven't got any money. (= I've got no money.)
There aren't any emails. (= There are no emails.)
There isn't any time. (= There's no time.)
- We usually use any in questions with plural and uncountable nouns.
Have you got any brothers or sisters?
Are there any buses at night?
Is there any meat in this soup?

| | Singular countable noun | Plural countable noun | Uncountable noun |
|---|-------------------------|-----------------------------|-------------------------|

| | No, I'm not. |
| | No, he/she/it isn't. |
| | No, you/we/they aren't. |

STUDY 2

would like to and want to for future wishes

- We use want to and would like to to talk about our future wishes. Would like to is usually more polite.

I want to travel this summer.

I'd like to book a room, please.

- In the negative, we don't often use wouldn't like to. We prefer don't want to.

I don't want to go out tonight.

NOT I wouldn't like to go out tonight.

| | | | |
|---|------------------|-----------------|-----------------|
| + | I/You/We/They | want to | go out tonight. |
| | He/She/It | wants to | |
| - | I/You/We/They | don't want to | have a party. |
| | He/She/It | doesn't want to | |
| ? | Do I/you/we/they | want to | buy a new car? |
| | Does he/she/it | want to | |

|---------------|--------------------------|
| Short answers | Yes, I/you/we/they do. |
| | Yes, he/she/it does. |
| | No, I/you/we/they don't. |
| | No, he/she/it doesn't. |

| | | | |

| + | I/You/He/She/It/We/They | 'd like to (= would like to) | book a table. |
| - | I/You/He/She/It/We/They | wouldn't like to | eat that. |
| ? | Would I/you/he/she/it/we/they | like to | watch a film? |

|---------------|---------------------------------------|
| Short answers | Yes, I/you/he/she/it/we/they would. |
| | No, I/you/he/she/it/we/they wouldn't. |

- We often use these common time phrases to talk about future intentions and wishes (with going to, would like to and want to):

today

tonight

tomorrow

tomorrow morning/afternoon/evening/night

this afternoon/weekend/month/summer

next week/month/winter/year

STUDY 1

have to and don't have to

- We use have to when it is necessary or obligatory to do something.
You have to drive on the left in Britain.
- We use don't have to when it is not necessary to do something, but you can do it if you want to.
You don't have to go to the party if you don't want to.

REMEMBER!

When it is not OK or it is prohibited to do something, we use can't.

You can't smoke in the classroom.

NOT You don't have to smoke in the classroom.

STUDY 2

might and will

We use might (not) and will (not) to say that something is possible or probable in the future.

- might* = the speaker thinks it is possible that something will happen
- might not* = the speaker thinks it is possible that something will not happen
- will* = the speaker thinks it is probable or is sure that something will happen
- won't (= will not)* = the speaker thinks it is probable or is sure that something will not happen

| | | |
|----------------------|---------------------------------|-------------------|
| I/You/He/She/We/They | 'll (= will) | go to university. |
| | might | |
| | might not won't (= will not) | |

REMEMBER!

- We don't use to after might and will.
It might rain tomorrow.
NOT It might to rain.
- We can contract might and not (= mightn't) but we don't usually do this.
I might not go to the party on Saturday.
NOT USUALLY I mightn't go to the party on Saturday.

PRACTICE 2

1 Complete the sentences with will (not) and might (not) to make them true in your opinion.

- In ten years' time, people _____ live on other planets.
- One day, people _____ go on holiday on the moon.
- Flying _____ become cheaper in the future.

STUDY 1

Present perfect (unfinished time)

- We form the Present perfect with has/have + past participle.
- Regular verbs have regular past participles. These are the same as the Past simple form (verb + -ed).
I've finished my homework.
She phoned the hospital.
- Irregular verbs have irregular past participles (see the Irregular verb list on page 175).
I've spoken to her today.
He's written three books.
We've lost our keys.

| | | | |
|---|----------------------------|--|--------------------|
| + | I/You/We/They He/She/It | 've (= have) 's (= has) | met her before. |
| - | I/You/We/They He/She/It | haven't (= have not) hasn't (= has not) | been there before. |
| ? | Have Has | I/you/we/they he/she/it | seen him today? |

| | | | |
|---------------|------|----------------------------|---------------------|
| Short answers | Yes, | I/you/we/they he/she/it | have. has. |
| | No, | I/you/we/they he/she/it | haven't. hasn't. |

- We use the Present perfect to talk about something that happened in the past but is connected to the present.
– It happened in a present time period.
I've been very busy today.
– It happened 'some time in my life up to now' (my life is not finished).
She's done a lot of different jobs.
I've broken my arm three times.
- We do not say exactly when these actions happened with the Present perfect.
She's been to the hairdresser's.
NOT She's been to the hairdresser's last week.
- We often use these words/phrases to talk about the time period:
so far, so far this weekend, today, this morning, this afternoon

PRACTICE 1

1 Complete the sentences with the past participle of the verb in brackets.

- Have you ever _____ (forget) someone's name?

- A: Has Sarah eaten her dinner?
B: No, she _____.
- A: Has he spoken to the manager?
B: Yes, he _____.
- A: Have you bought a new laptop?
B: No, I _____.

STUDY 2

Present perfect (with ever)

We can use ever with the Present perfect to ask about things you have done at 'some time in your life up to now'. We are interested in the action – not when it happened. With the Present perfect, we do not say exactly when the action happened.

A: Have you ever been to Australia?

B: Yes, I have. I've been three times.

A: Have you ever tried windsurfing?

B: No I haven't – but I'd love to.

REMEMBER!

The verb go has two past participles: gone and been.

- gone* = gone but not returned
Anna's gone shopping this morning.
(= she's at the shops now; she hasn't returned)
- been* = gone and returned again
Anna's been shopping this morning.
(= she went to the shops, but now she is back)

My name's Liz. I'm from Leeds in the north of England. I'm 27 years old and these are my five favourite people. Number 1: this is my brother, Anthony. He's, er, 25? No, 26 ... yes, he's 26 ... and he's married. He's got two children – a son and a daughter. And this is Anthony's daughter, Emily ... my niece. She's three years old. Look at her! Ah, she's lovely ... And this is my friend Elaine. She's a really good friend. She's a teacher. She's got a new job in a school in Leeds ... This is my favourite actor, George Clooney. He's fantastic. He's from the USA ... How old is he? I don't know. Fifty-something, I think ... Yeah, he's not a real person, but ... Sherlock Holmes. He's a famous British detective. He's my favourite fictional character.

UNIT 3 RECORDING 6

I live on the Isle of Lewis in the Outer Hebrides ... in a town called Stornoway. It's a very special place. The first thing is, it's a long way from everywhere else. You can take a ferry from Ullapool on the Scottish mainland. That takes two hours forty minutes.

We've got lots of shops in Stornoway. We've even got a little supermarket which is open till midnight, although most shops close at five o'clock. And one thing to remember is that everything is very busy on Saturday, especially on Saturday night, but everything is closed on Sunday. Everything!

Stornoway is very far north, so in summer the days are very long. At 10.30 in the evening, it's not dark ... you can still see the sun ... it's beautiful. We actually have a different language, called Gaelic ... but people speak English as well. Stornoway is really a fantastic place ... so come and visit us!

UNIT 3 RECORDING 7

I = Interviewer M = Mike

I: So, in Melbourne do most people live in houses or flats?

M: I'd say ... er ... most people live in houses. Most people don't live in the city centre, they live outside.

I: OK, and what time do children start school?

M: Usually at nine ... nine o'clock ... Yeah, my children start at nine, certainly.

I: And what time do they finish?

M: Three thirty. Half past three.

I: So ... a question about people in offices ... Where do most people have lunch?

M: Gosh ... well nowadays, people don't have time to go home ... or go to a restaurant ... so they have a sandwich outside in the park or something to eat in the office.

I: What time do shops close in Melbourne?

M: Well, in Melbourne, shops close about six or seven ... they're open late Thursday and Friday ... and there are 24-hour shops nowadays.

I: Do shops close at lunchtime?

M: No, they don't.

I: And do shops open on Sunday?

M: I think everything's open on Sunday nowadays.

I: How about dinner? What time do people have dinner?

M: At home?

I: Yeah.

M: Well, at home, I think most Australians eat quite early ... about six o'clock. And some restaurants are open late, but most restaurants close at around 9.30 or ten. Um... some restaurants are open late, especially Chinese restaurants.

UNIT 3 RECORDING 8

I = Interviewer M = Mike

- I: OK, so let me check ... in Melbourne, most people live in houses.
M: Yeah, I think so.
I: Children start school at nine o'clock ...
M: Yeah ...
I: ... and finish at three.
M: 3.30 ... They finish at 3.30.
I: Oh sorry, yes ... they finish school at half past three, not three o'clock.
M: That's right.
I: And at lunchtime, most people don't go home or go to a restaurant – they have lunch in their office or outside.
M: OK, yeah ...
I: Most shops are open late on Thursday and Friday ...
M: Uh huh ...
I: ... and they don't close at lunchtime ... And the shops open on Sunday.
M: Yeah ...
I: And most people have dinner at about six o'clock, if they're at home ... And restaurants close at about 9.30, ten.
M: Most restaurants ...
I: Most restaurants ... OK, that's it! Thanks very much.
M: You're welcome!

P = Presenter

- P: Adele comes from London, but she is famous throughout the world thanks to albums such as 19 and 25. But Adele is different from many other pop stars. Emma May tells us why.

UNIT 4 RECORDING 2

E = Emma P = Presenter

- E: Adele lives in a £6 million house in England, but she likes the simple things in life. She loves her dog, Louis Armstrong, and likes going for walks with him. She also loves spending time with her mother, Penny. She has some close friends and likes going to restaurants and spending time with them.
P: Adele loves singing, of course, but she doesn't like doing big concerts ... she says she's very nervous. She doesn't like flying ... she hates the food on aeroplanes!
E: She wears simple black clothes for concerts, but at other times she likes comfortable clothes. She doesn't have lots of crazy clothes like some pop stars. She says, 'I don't make music for eyes. I make music for ears!'

UNIT 4 RECORDING 4

- 1 She likes London.
- 2 He watches TV.

UNIT 4 RECORDING 6

L = Lucy C = Cassia J = Juan T = Tom

- L: My name's Lucy, I'm from Australia ... and I love being in the fresh air; I don't like being inside. I live in Sydney, so I'm always at the beach ... and I love swimming and being near water generally. I like scenery, too, but the sea's my favourite.
C: My name is Cassia. I am from Brazil. I think I'm a very creative person. I love working with other people to create something wonderful ... a work of art, maybe, or some beautiful music. I don't play an instrument, but I sing and I love dancing, too.
J: I am Juan. I am Spanish ... I am a student at university. My subject is art history. I love music, I love painting, but I want to do something quiet, something artistic. I don't like being with a lot of other people all the time ... I like being alone sometimes, so I can think and look at beautiful scenery, or something like that.
T: I'm Tom ... I'm a professional musician, a very friendly person. I like meeting people ... and I like learning new things. I enjoy going out with friends, maybe to a bar or to a restaurant for something to eat. I like good food, but I don't like cooking.

UNIT 4 RECORDING 7

- A: OK ... Lucy ... she likes being outside ...
B: Yeah, she loves being in the fresh air ... she doesn't like being inside.
A: Yes, so maybe the painting course is good for her, because she likes being outside.
B: Mmm ... I'm not sure ... I think she wants something active.
A: Or ... the sailing course? That's outside and active. What do you think?
B: I think the sailing course is good for her, because she likes being near the water.
A: Yes, you're right. It's perfect for her.
B: Yes, I agree. So ... 'Sailing' for Lucy.

UNIT 5 RECORDING 1

- 1 In the USA, 74% of people drive a car. In Japan, it's 59%; and in Germany, it's 53%. The average American family owns 1.9 cars.
- 2 More than 100 million people in the world ride a bicycle. About a third of these people are in China. In the Netherlands, about 30% of people choose to ride a bicycle. But in the USA, it's only about 2%.
- 3 In Italy, a country of 60 million people, 9 million people have scooters. In Rome, 500,000 people ride scooters, so they can get about easily in the city traffic.
- 4 In Italy, the average journey to work is about 25 minutes; and in the USA, it's about 32 minutes. In Great Britain, it's about 45 minutes – that's nearly 200 hours a year travelling to and from work.
- 5 Every day, more than 1 million people travel into the centre of London: 77% take a bus or train, about 20% drive and only 3% walk to work.
- 6 There are over 160 underground train systems in the world, including those in Paris, Shanghai, Mexico City, Seoul, Moscow, Madrid and Tokyo.
- 7 The London Underground, or the 'Tube', has 270 stations. Over 1,000 million passengers use the Tube every year.
- 8 The underground train system in Tokyo is very efficient: people usually wait no more than five minutes for a train. The only problem is that it's sometimes difficult to get on or off a train because they're often very crowded.
- 9 The two busiest international airports are Hartsfield–Jackson Airport in Atlanta, USA, with 71 million passengers every year, and Beijing Capital International Airport, with 60 million. That means about 160 people fly to Atlanta every minute.

UNIT 5 RECORDING 3

- 1 You decide to fly somewhere for the weekend.
- 2 You book your ticket online.
- 3 You go to the airport and look for 'Departures'.

- 4 You can't smoke in Terminal 1.
- 5 A: Can you smoke in Terminal 2?
B: Yes, you can.
- 6 A: Can you sleep in Terminal 1?
B: No, you can't.

UNIT 5 RECORDING 5

The public transport system in Hong Kong is mostly very modern, but for something different you can always take a tram. The trams are actually more than a hundred years old, but they are an interesting tourist attraction – they're not fast, but they are cheap! The underground train system is very, very clean ... and one reason for this is that you can't eat or drink on the trains. The trains are very good – you can always find a seat and the trains come every two or three minutes. Taxis are a really good way to get around Hong Kong. We have lots and lots of taxis. At busy times, you can't always find an empty taxi very quickly ... but you get one in the end.

One thing that you really need is a special travel card, called an 'Octopus' card. You pay for it and then you can use it on the whole public transport system. You can even use it to buy food and drink! So you can buy yourself a burger and a drink with your Octopus card!

UNIT 5 RECORDING 7

I = Interviewer F = female interviewee

- I: OK, thanks for doing the survey.
F: That's all right.
I: So, first question ... How do you travel to school or work every day?
F: Well, I don't go to school and I don't go to work ... I go to university.
I: So how do you travel to university?
F: I go by bike.
I: Bike, OK ... and how long does your journey take?
F: Um, let me see ...
I: One to ten minutes? Ten to 20 minutes? More ... ?
F: Er, I'd say about 15 minutes.
I: Fifteen ... so it's 'b' – ten to 20 minutes?
F: Yeah.
I: Question 3 ... How far do you walk every week?
F: Hmm ... how far do I walk?
I: Nought to five kilometres? Six to ten ...
F: I'd say nought to five ... I go everywhere by bike, usually.
I: Nought to five, OK ... And which of these things can you do ... Can you drive a car?
F: Yes, I can.
I: Can you ride a bike?
F: Yes, of course!
I: Can you ride a scooter?
F: Um ... yeah ...
I: And can you drive a van?
F: A van? Well, I never ... no, I can't.
I: OK, thank you ... Question 5 ... How often do you travel by car?
F: That's interesting, because I can drive but I haven't got a car ... so I don't drive very often.
I: Once a week? Several times a week?
F: I'd say several times. My friend's got a car and she sometimes drives me.
I: That's fine ... several times. OK ... Question 6 ... How often do you use public transport?
F: Well, as I say, I usually go by bike so I don't use public transport much. Maybe once a week?
I: Once a week, OK. What do you think of public transport in your town?
F: What do I think?
I: Yeah, is it a) excellent b) good c) OK or d) not good?
F: Well, I don't know really ... I don't use public transport very much.
I: Ah, so 'e' ... 'don't know' ... that's good. And last question ... Which is your favourite method of transport?
F: Ah, that's an easy one!
I: I think I know this answer ...
F: Bicycle, of course ... I love my bicycle!

Jo

The name of my favourite restaurant is Fish Kitchen ... it's got a great location, by the river ... and when the weather's good, you can sit outside and the view is really nice. As for the food, well, the name of the restaurant is Fish Kitchen, so obviously people go for fish and chips. It's always busy, and it's very friendly ... there are always lots of families. I like it because I love fish and chips, it's not expensive and it's a great place to go with your friends.

Tristan

One of the fantastic things about living in London is that you can get food from all around the world. One of my favourite kinds of food is from Vietnam. Near where I work, there is a really good Vietnamese restaurant ... I often go there for lunch. The cooks are all Vietnamese and they do all the cooking in front of you. The speciality is bun cha, which is noodles with meat and chilli and sauce. The sauce is delicious – it's made with fish and vegetables. Mmm ... I love it!

Kate

I don't like expensive restaurants. My favourite place to eat isn't an expensive restaurant ... it's my grandmother's house. She lives in a small town near where I live. I have lunch there every week. My grandmother always cooks a big lunch on Sunday for the whole family. A typical dish for Sunday lunch is roast meat ... we usually have roast beef with potatoes and vegetables. I love eating there because I'm with my family. The important thing is that my grandma always cooks with love ... so I feel happy there.

UNIT 7 RECORDING 5

Jacqueline Lee Bouvier was born on Long Island, near New York, in July 1929. She was the daughter of wealthy parents and spent a happy childhood in and around New York. She studied at university in the USA and at the Sorbonne in Paris, France. She completed her degree in French Literature in 1951. In that same year, she began work as a journalist, and she also met the man who changed her life: the future President of the United States, John F. Kennedy.

The couple fell in love and in 1953 they got married. There were 700 guests at the wedding. They then spent their honeymoon in Acapulco, Mexico. Seven years later, in November 1960, John Kennedy won the presidential election and Jacqueline – or Jackie – Kennedy was the First Lady of the United States.

As a couple, the Kennedys travelled to many countries, including France, India and Germany. Jackie Kennedy soon became more than a president's wife: she became a style icon for women all over the world. On one trip, JFK joked, 'I am the man who accompanied Jackie Kennedy to Paris ...'

UNIT 7 RECORDING 6

In November 1963, the Kennedys left the White House for their last trip together – to Dallas, Texas. On 22nd November, a gunman shot John F. Kennedy dead. After the murder of Kennedy's brother, Robert, or Bobby, in 1968, Jackie Kennedy left America and married Greek millionaire businessman Aristotle Onassis. When Onassis died suddenly in 1975, she returned to the USA and worked for a publishing company. In 1994, she died. Among the tributes were flowers from the famous singer Frank Sinatra. The note read simply 'You are America's Queen'.

UNIT 7 RECORDING 7

- 1 My cousin is called Alice. She was born in London in 1972. As a child, Alice loved sports and being outdoors. She didn't study very hard at school because she wanted to play sports all the time.
- 2 When she was 18, she left school, but she didn't go to university. She got a job in America – the job was teaching sports to children at a summer camp.
- 3 When Alice was in America, she met her boyfriend, Todd. They travelled around America together on his motorbike, but after six months she came back to the UK because she didn't have a visa.
- 4 After that, Alice decided to go to university. She graduated at the age of 22 and got a job in the UK as a teacher in a large secondary school.
- 5 She lost touch with Todd and they didn't see each other for a long time. But after 13 years, she got a letter from Todd and they decided to meet again.
- 6 Then Alice made some big decisions. She went back to America, got married to Todd and had two children. She went back to college and retrained as a nurse. In the end, she got a job in a hospital in New York – and she is very happy with her life.

UNIT 8 RECORDING 1

P = Presenter R = Reporter

- P: So, today we are talking about a song ... a song which is famous all over the world ... which also became an incredibly successful musical. Tony Jenkins is here to talk to us about the song and musical We Will Rock You ... Hello, Tony.
- R: Hello.
- P: First, tell me about the original song. When did the song come out?
- R: Well, the British rock band Queen started writing songs and performing in the 1970s and We Will Rock You became a number one hit for them in 1977. Queen's lead singer was Freddie Mercury, but the guitarist, Brian May, wrote the song.
- P: Brian May ... mmm ... Why did he write the song?
- R: Well, he wrote it after a concert. When the concert finished, the audience didn't want to go home. They started singing a football song ... a kind of chant ... because they wanted Queen to come back on stage. That chanting by the audience inspired May to write We Will Rock You.
- P: The song sounds a bit like a football chant, doesn't it? With the background beat of stamping and clapping ...
- R: That's right. In fact, people often sing We Will Rock You at football matches and other sporting events. It's a very inspirational song – an anthem really – that inspires people.
- P: Yes ... and what about the musical? Did Brian May write the musical?
- R: Well, no, he didn't write it. British comedian Ben Elton wrote the musical, but he worked very closely with Brian May and Queen's drummer, Roger Taylor. Ben Elton wrote the story, and Brian May and Roger Taylor worked with him, fitting the songs around the story ... they are all Queen songs.
- P: And ... what is the story?
- R: Well, the story is set in the future – 300 years from now. It is a world where you can't write your own music. People watch the same films, listen to the same music, wear the same clothes and have the same opinions.
- P: Who is the main character?
- R: The main character is called Galileo ... and he doesn't want to be the same as everyone else. He wants to be different.
- P: And when did the musical come out?
- R: The first performance was in May 2002 at the Dominion Theatre in London.
- P: Did the musical get good reviews?
- R: Well, actually no ... the critics didn't like it at all.
- P: Really?
- R: Mmm ... but the audiences loved it ... and they still do. Over ten years later, it's still playing in the same theatre in London ... and in many other countries in the world.
- P: Where did the musical first go on tour?
- R: It first went to Australia in 2003, and then to Japan in 2005. Since then, it's been to many other countries, including Spain, the USA, Russia, South Africa, Italy, Sweden, Singapore, South Korea ... many countries around the world!
- P: And where is it showing at the moment?
- R: Well, it's ...

Lauren

- I: When did you last have a really good evening – in or out?
 L: Well, last week I had a really good evening out.
 I: What did you do?
 L: I went to a fantastic concert.
 I: Oh really. Who did you see?
 L: I saw a band called the Ravens ... they're a jazz band ... traditional jazz.
 I: Who did you go with?
 L: I went with a friend of mine, Kate. She really likes jazz, too. We often go together.
 I: Where was it? And how did you get there?
 L: Oh, it was in a small café in the centre of town ... and we went by bus.
 I: Was it good?
 L: Yes, it was really good ... they're great. I love their music and I really like going to see live music. It was really good fun.

Daniel

- I: When did you last have a really good evening – in or out?
 D: Last weekend ... on Saturday evening ... I had a good evening in ... at home, with friends.
 I: What did you do?
 D: I had a dinner party ... well, not a big party; I cooked dinner for four friends.
 I: What did you cook?
 D: I made a delicious dish with chicken and vegetables, and then we had a dessert – chocolate, strawberries and cream. It was great.
 I: Who was there?
 D: Four friends of mine. I met them at work and we are all really good friends. It was fun. We often have dinner parties together.

Karl

- I: When did you last have a really good evening – in or out?
 K: Well, actually, I had a really bad evening out a couple of weeks ago.
 I: Oh! What did you do?
 K: I went to the cinema ... and saw a film ...
 I: And ... well, what did you think of it?
 K: Well, I didn't really enjoy it. Actually, it was awful. I expected it to be really good ... all the reviews I read were great. But it was really boring!
 I: Where did you see it?
 K: At my local cinema – five minutes' walk away.
 I: And, who did you go with?
 K: I went with my girlfriend ... it was her birthday. She didn't enjoy it either. It was really expensive as well! As you can imagine, she wasn't happy at all. It was a terrible evening!

T = Tina L = Lee O = Oksana K = Karim

Tina and Lee

- T: Hi, Lee. You live in Thailand, don't you ... the same as me?
 L: Yes.
 T: So, let's decide what souvenirs we could take from Thailand ... I mean, let's see ... Thailand is famous for silk products, isn't it? Shirts, scarves ... silk scarves and things ...
 L: Yes, true.
 T: So, I think a good souvenir from Thailand is a silk shirt ... I think that for the father, for Bob ... a silk shirt is a fantastic souvenir. What do you think?
 L: Mmm ... yes, that's a good idea. Why don't we buy a silk shirt with something like an elephant on it? That's very typical of Thailand ... they are really beautiful and colourful.
 T: Yes, lovely. I think he will be very happy with that. And what about Amy, the mother?
 L: Well, you can get beautiful silk scarves for women ... a colourful silk scarf, maybe.
 T: Yes, you can. But I think jewellery is better, because it's difficult to buy a dress for a woman you don't know. What do you think?
 L: OK, that's true. Yes, jewellery ... good idea. That's great ... And for the children ... Have you got any ideas for the children?

Oksana and Karim

- O: Well, I'm Oksana and I'm from Ukraine. Karim, where are you from?
 K: I'm from Egypt. I have no idea about souvenirs from Ukraine. What's a good souvenir from your country?
 O: Well, matryoshka dolls are very typical of Ukraine and also other countries near Ukraine. They are very good souvenirs.
 K: Matryoshka dolls?
 O: Yes ... you know ... you have a big doll and inside the doll there's a smaller one, and inside that one, another smaller one ... four or five dolls, or maybe more.
 K: Oh yes, I know.
 O: In Ukraine, the matryoshka dolls are a family. The big doll on the outside, that's the dad. Then, inside, there is a smaller one – that's the mum. Then a son, a daughter, a pet, maybe a dog or cat, and the smallest is a little baby. They are fun – and pretty – I think it's a very nice souvenir for a child.
 K: Yes.
 O: So I chose that for the little girl in the family ... for Lorna. I think she'll like it. What about you? What did you choose for her?
 K: Well, I chose a toy camel.
 O: Oh, that's a good idea ... a camel ... yes ... there are lots of camels in Egypt, aren't there?
 K: Yes, people use them for transporting things in the desert areas. They are interesting animals ... and children usually like them. Yes, I think a toy camel is a good souvenir.
 O: Can you buy them easily?
 K: Yes, you can buy them in lots of places. Lots of souvenir shops have them. You can get different sizes and they're not usually too expensive.

UNIT 10 RECORDING 2

Katie

I'm a shop assistant in a large fashion store. I don't have a uniform, but all the shop assistants wear the clothes from the store. I need to look stylish and friendly when I'm at work, and it's good that customers can see shop assistants wearing the clothes that they can buy. Luckily, I really like the clothes in the shop, and I wear different things every day: a dress, trousers, shorts ... there's lots of variety. I love deciding what to wear in the mornings!

Marlon

I'm a personal trainer. I work in a gym and I teach exercise classes and help people to get fit. I love my job and I like the fact that I can wear sports clothes. My work clothes are comfortable and I think they look good, too. I usually wear a sports shirt and shorts ... and trainers, of course. On colder days, if I'm outside, I wear long tracksuit trousers and a jacket. The gym provides me with all my clothes for work, so I don't have to pay for them, which is great, too!

Louisa

I work for a large bank in the city centre. The way I dress at work is important – I need to give the right impression. I have a lot of meetings with clients and it's important for me to look confident and reliable. I usually wear a skirt suit – a smart skirt and jacket – in a dark colour, like blue or black. I sometimes wear small earrings, but generally I don't wear much jewellery at work. Sometimes I think my work clothes are boring, but I don't mind them really.

Sam

I'm an IT manager – I give advice to companies on their information technology and computer systems. I like my job because I work with computers but also with people. It's important for me to look smart in my job, so that I look professional and people feel they can trust me. I always wear a shirt and tie, but I try not to look very formal ... so my tie is usually a bright colour, like red ... or sometimes pink.

UNIT 10 RECORDING 3

I usually go to work in an office, but on Fridays, I work at home. When I go to the office, I wear a smart suit and earrings. Today, I'm working at home so I'm wearing very casual clothes – tracksuit and trainers. I'm not wearing any jewellery today.

At my sister's college, people usually wear casual clothes. They normally wear jeans and maybe a shirt or jumper. The teacher doesn't wear a suit – he usually wears jeans, too. Today it's really hot, so my sister's wearing shorts and a T-shirt.

UNIT 10 RECORDING 4

A: OK. So I can analyse your personality using colours. Let's see what kind of person you really are!

B: OK, fine.

A: Well, first, what's your favourite colour?

B: Um ... well, red, I think ... and black. Can I say two colours?

A: Two colours ... OK ... maybe ... but which of those is your favourite?

B: I suppose it's red. Red is my favourite, but I like black, too.

A: OK ... and what is your least favourite colour?

B: My least favourite colour is brown. I don't like brown.

A: Good, OK ... brown. Thanks. So let's see ... what colours are you wearing now?

B: Well, I'm wearing mostly black, and a bit of white.

A: That's fine.

B: So, what does that say about me?

A: Let's see ... well, red clothes mean you are a confident person. You like a lot of action in your life, too.

B: I think that's absolutely right!

A: And you like wearing black, so you're reliable.

B: Yes, I'm a very reliable person.

A: Black also means you can be bossy.

B: Yes, I think that's true, too!

A: OK ... so that's all true so far. Now let's look at your least favourite colour.

B: OK ...

UNIT 11 RECORDING 1

P = Presenter C = Charlotte

P: Hello ... in our programme today we're talking about intelligent animals. Charlotte Golding is an animal expert and she studies animals, especially different kinds of extremely intelligent animals. Good morning, Charlotte.

C: Good morning.

P: So, tell us about some of the animals you study. What kinds of things can they do?

C: Well, most people know that whales and dolphins are very intelligent ... they really can do some amazing things. They often work together in large groups to catch their food ... They speak to each other by making noises ...

P: Yes, that shows great intelligence.

C: And other animals that can speak are African grey parrots. They can learn to copy humans and to speak like them.

P: That's incredible!

C: Yes, and some of them can answer questions about things.

P: Wow!

C: Dogs, too, are very good at communicating generally ... and some of them are very good at remembering things as well. One dog I studied can remember the names of thousands of things ... and he can go and get whichever thing his owner asks. It's really amazing ... Thousands of them!

P: Wow! I find it difficult to remember names!

C: Yes, well, talking of remembering things ... One animal – one of my personal favourites – is a chimpanzee.

P: A chimpanzee?

C: Yes, he can remember sequences of numbers. He looks at a computer screen showing a sequence of numbers, from 1 to 10, for example, in different places on the screen. And when numbers disappear, he can remember exactly where each number was.

P: That's amazing!

C: Yes, and what's really amazing is that he only looks at the numbers for 60 milliseconds. When I tried it, I didn't have time to even see all the numbers. There was no chance to remember them at all!

P: No, I'm sure I couldn't do that either.

- 1 The approximate number of active volcanoes in the world is 1,500.
- 2 The country with the largest number of active volcanoes is Indonesia, with over 120.
- 3 The approximate top speed of a killer whale is nearly 50 kilometres per hour.
- 4 The average distance that killer whales swim every year is 20,000 kilometres.
- 5 The height of some giant redwood trees in California is over 100 metres.
- 6 Camels can survive without water in temperatures of 50 degrees Celsius for approximately 240 hours.
- 7 The average weight of a male African elephant is 8,500 kilograms.
- 8 The approximate rat population of New York City is 32,000,000.
- 9 Damascus in Syria is perhaps the world's oldest city – it is 10,000 years old.

UNIT 11 RECORDING 4

South Africa is really a fantastic country to visit. It's one of the most beautiful and diverse countries in the world. We have deserts, grassland, mountains, tropical forests ... There aren't many countries in the world where you can see all these amazing things! But if you only have a little time, here are four places you really must visit. One city that a lot of people want to visit is Cape Town. It's a beautiful, beautiful city ... by the sea. And you can see the famous Table Mountain, where you will find a lot of different varieties of plants. In fact, there are about 2,200 species of plants ... that's more than the whole of the UK!

The Tugela Falls are in the Royal Natal National Park in the east part of the country. The Tugela Falls is the second highest waterfall in the world, and the highest in Africa. The water falls 850 metres – it's incredible to see!

Of course, in South Africa we have a lot of amazing wildlife, and the Kruger National Park is the place to see it. We have a huge number of bird species – more than 500, in fact – and nearly 150 animal species. And you can find elephants, rhinoceros, zebra. My favourite is the cheetah, the fastest animal in the world. Did you know a cheetah can run at 100 kilometres per hour? There isn't much chance of winning that race! That's fast!

There aren't any active volcanoes in South Africa, but there are a few dormant volcanoes; for example, the Salpeterkop volcano. It's 66 million years old, and it's not officially extinct!

These are just a few of the fantastic places you can visit in South Africa. There are many more that I don't have time to tell you about. The best thing is to come and see us here in South Africa. You're very welcome!

UNIT 11 RECORDING 5

- A: OK ... so, number 1 ... the category is 'Countries' ... Question number 1: Where is the River Ganges?
- B: Um, let's look at the possible answers. India – or China? Er, what do you think?
- A: I think it's in India.
- B: I'm not sure, but I think it's India, yes.
- A: OK ... number 2 ... the category is 'History' ... and the question is: Who became President of Russia on 26th March 2000?
- B: I've got no idea!
- A: I don't know either. Let's look at the possible answers ... OK, it says ... umm ... Boris Yeltsin ... or Vladimir Putin?
- B: Well, I think it's Boris Yeltsin ... yes ... Boris Yeltsin.
- A: OK. Let's say that ... Yeltsin. Now, number 3 ... 'Science' ... How many kilometres are there in one mile?
- B: I know this one. It's definitely 1.6. There are 1.6 kilometres in a mile.
- A: Yes, that sounds right and 1.6 is one of the possible answers. Number 4 ... this one is also 'Science' ... How far is it from the Earth to the sun?
- B: Oh ... umm ... what are the possible answers?
- A: Well, 50 million kilometres ... or 150 million kilometres? What do you think?
- B: Er, I don't know ... maybe 50 million kilometres?
- A: I've got no idea ... so ... OK ... let's say 50 million.
- A: Great. OK ... Number 5 ... 'Sport' ... When did Spain win the World Cup? Do you know this one?
- B: Yes! They won it in 2010. It was in South Africa, and they beat the Netherlands 1–0 ... yes, I know this one ... it's definitely 2010.
- A: Next one ... number 6 ... 'Countries' ... What is the capital of Peru? Umm ... Bogotá? Or Lima?

UNIT 12 RECORDING 1

- I've got a really busy weekend because I'm going to a friend's wedding on Saturday. On Saturday morning, I'm going to the hairdresser's and then I'm going to meet my friend Monica, and we're going to drive to the wedding together. I'm really excited!
- Next Monday is Independence Day. I'm not going to work on Monday because it's a national holiday, so I've got a three-day weekend. I'm going to the beach for three days with my family. When we're there, I'm not going to do anything – I'm going to relax on the beach!
- On Sunday, I'm going to a big family party. It's a special day because my cousin, Gabriela, is 15 and it's her coming-of-age party. I'm going to wear my new party dress. We're going to have a lot of special food and we're going to dance a lot, too! I can't wait!

UNIT 12 RECORDING 3

Example

My brother is going to cook a family meal tonight.

- I'm going to have a party this weekend.
- My parents are going to decorate the house next week.
- I am going to have a holiday abroad this summer.
- I'm going to buy some new clothes this weekend.
- My friends and I are going to have a picnic tomorrow.
- I'm going to make a cake tomorrow afternoon.
- My best friend is going to leave her job next month.

UNIT 12 RECORDING 6

- A: OK, so when is the festival going to happen?
- B: It's going to be at the beginning of July, the 5th to the 8th of July ... that's the best time, I think. Let's hope the weather's OK.
- A: So, music ... what music are you going to have?
- B: Well, the big attraction is the Protractors.
- A: Oh wow, the Protractors. I've heard of them; they're good.
- B: And we've also got Barbara McDowell, and a band called Salsa Fling are going to play at the festival.
- A: Sounds good. And how about food? What food are you going to sell?
- B: A lot of traditional Scottish food. Things like Scotch broth, haggis ... traditional Scottish things. And we're going to have cookery demonstrations as well.
- A: And what about activities for children?
- B: Yes, we've got a lot of activities for children. We've got face-painting, arts and crafts workshops ... And there's going to be traditional Scottish dancing.
- A: How about accommodation?
- B: Well, most people go to the campsite, but there are a few hotels in Auldhay. You can go to the Tourist Information office for more details.
- A: Oh right ... and how about tickets? Where can people get tickets?
- B: Well, you can buy tickets online, or you can get them at the ...

UNIT 13 RECORDING 2

Lorraine

When I was young, I didn't see the point of school at all! I hated it and I failed most of my exams. I found everything boring ... I just wanted to leave school and start work. My parents worked hard but didn't have much money – my father was a train driver and my mother worked in a supermarket. I think that from an early age, I knew that I wanted to earn money, and have a better life than them. So, I left school when I was 16 and started work in the local baker's shop – just a small place selling bread and cakes and things. I didn't get paid much, but it was a start! I was determined to do well, and after two years there, I became the manager of the shop. I loved it, but I realised that I wanted more. So after another three years there, I decided to start my own business. I opened a small baker's shop and, well, in the first ten years of my business, I opened 60 more shops. I worked really hard ... really long hours ... and my business continued to grow fast, and it is still growing. It's worth over £30 million now – I'm very proud of that!!

Martin

My parents both got into top universities – my father got a degree in Engineering and my mother got a degree in Maths. I passed all my exams at school with top grades, and I also got into a very good university. I got a degree in Maths and chose a career in banking. When I was in my 20s, I worked for a large company and earned a lot of money. My parents were very proud of me, of course. But after a few years, I realised I wasn't happy at all. I didn't like my job; it was stressful and boring. I had a wife and two small children, but I didn't have any time to spend with them ... I was stressed all the time and I didn't have time to do the things I liked doing. What I really liked was music – playing the guitar, mostly. So I left my job and now I do small concerts and I teach the guitar to earn some money. I have a stress-free life ... I can spend time with my family and friends ... and I can combine my hobby – the thing I love doing – with work. I don't earn much money, but I don't mind because now I enjoy every day!

UNIT 13 RECORDING 3

- A: So, shall we look at the results?
B: Yes, OK.
A: Well, what did you get? How many a's, b's, c's and d's?
B: Umm ... OK, let's see. Well, I got one ... , two ... , three ... , four a's ...
A: Four a's!
M: Yes, and one b, two d's and one c.
A: So, that's definitely mostly a's!
B: Yes ... what does that mean, then?
A: Well, let's have a look at the information. Your results ...
B: What does it say?
A: OK ... mostly a's ... It says here, 'You are a dynamic person ...'
B: Yes, that's true. I think I am. I like doing things and being active ...
And ... ?
A: ... and '... you are ready to do anything to be a success in life.'
B: Well, I think that's partly true. I mean, I'll work as hard as I can and I might be a bit bossy sometimes, but I won't do 'anything' to be a success. I won't be horrible to people ... and I won't work all the time ... 24-7.
A: No ...
B: What else?
A: OK, it says, 'Perhaps you will be a successful businessperson, manager or you will work in finance.'
B: Oh well, that's not right! Er ... that's rubbish! I'm not good at maths or business or anything like that!
A: No, you're more creative, aren't you? What's your job now?
B: Well, I'm a journalist at the moment, but I'd like to be a designer ... an interior designer. I might do a training course next year ... and change my career, I think. I'd really like to do that.
A: So, are you 'ready to do anything to be a success in life'?

UNIT 14 RECORDING 1

- 1 A: It says here that the average internet user has 25 online accounts!
B: Really? 25? That's a lot! How many have you got?
A: Oh, I don't know ... two bank accounts, various shop accounts ... umm ... probably about ten or 12 in all.
B: And do you have the same password for them all?
A: Well, I've got nearly the same password, but it's not exactly the same for every account.
B: Have you ever forgotten your password?
A: Yes, I have ... many times. I can only remember it when I write it down!
B: I know what you mean. I always write my passwords down, too. It's probably not very good to write them down, I suppose, but I'm sure most people do.
2 A: So, why don't you send Sonia a text message and ask her about the party?
B: Yes, good idea ... er ... er ... where's my phone?
A: Erm ... I don't know ... it was in your bag, wasn't it?
B: Oh, here it is ... it's terrible not knowing where your phone is! I really lost it last summer, when I was on holiday. It was awful. Have you ever lost your mobile phone?
A: No, I haven't. I've never lost it, but someone stole it once.
B: Oh no! Really? Where? What happened?
A: Oh, I was at a concert ... an open-air concert in a park ... you know, there were thousands of people there ... and after about an hour, I realised my phone wasn't in my pocket. I'm sure someone stole it.
B: Maybe it just fell out of your pocket.
3 A: Oh, this computer is so slow. It keeps stopping and I can't do anything! It's really annoying!
B: Oh dear. You might have a virus. Have you ever had a virus on your computer?
A: Yes, I have. I've had two or three, I think.
B: Really? Two or three ... you should do something about it or you might lose everything on your computer ...
A: Oh, that's never happened ... it just goes really slowly sometimes.

- B: Seriously, some viruses are very dangerous – your computer might crash completely. Have you got anything important on your computer?
A: Oh, yes. All my homework assignments, and loads of photos and things.
B: You should get Daniel to look at it for you ... quickly ...
A: Really? Do you think so ...

UNIT 14 RECORDING 2

- 1 A: Have you ever forgotten your password?
B: Yes, I have.
2 A: Have you ever lost your mobile phone?
B: No, I haven't.
3 A: Have you ever had a virus on your computer?
B: Yes, I have.

UNIT 14 RECORDING 3

- A: OK, well, I'm going to choose the letter 'M'.
B: 'M' ... 'M' is ... 'Mobile phones'.
A: OK ... 'Mobile phones' ... that's good. What are the questions?
B: 'How do you feel if someone interrupts your conversation to use their mobile phone?' And ... 'How often do you use your phone when out with friends or at a meal with other people?'
A: Hmmm ... OK ...
B: You've got one minute to talk about those questions.
A: One minute – that's a long time.
B: OK ... one minute ... starting now!
A: OK, so, let me think ... Mobile phones ... I'm going to talk about mobile phones ... I'm going to talk about how I feel if someone interrupts me to use their mobile phone. Well, I don't like it when people use their mobile phones all the time. What I mean is, mobile phones are good for keeping in touch with people ... and for making arrangements with friends. What else? They are good for getting information if you have a smartphone ... and things like that. I use my phone a lot, you know ... especially to text people to say when to meet ... and if I'm going to be late. It's very useful for that. But some people use their phones all the time ... they are addicted ... Can I say that? ... Addicted to their phone. Yes, they are addicted to their mobile phone ... and when you speak to them, they always look at their phone and they don't listen to what I'm saying. In my opinion, that is not polite. It is very rude and I think it is annoying. Umm ... I suppose that sometimes I look at my texts when I am out with friends or at a meal, but not usually. I try to put my phone away ... when I'm eating a meal, and ...
B: OK ... time's up! That's one minute! Well done.
A: OK, great. I can take that square!
B: Now, it's my turn. Um ... I'm going to choose 'B' ... What are the questions for the letter 'B'?
A: 'B' is ... 'Books'.
B: Books? OK ...

CUTTING EDGE

THIRD EDITION

Cutting Edge Third Edition builds on the distinctive task-based approach that has made this course so popular. Engaging texts, new video content and a comprehensive digital package are just some of the features that make this fully revised edition even more effective.

The brand-new World culture lessons encourage learners to explore contemporary topics and develop online research skills.

Language live lessons provide light-hearted contexts for practising functional language and writing.

The Students' DVD-ROM contains all the audio and video clips and a digital Mini Dictionary of key vocabulary.
