TV classics

6a 1.3 Read and listen to the text about TV classics.

classics

What are the most popular TV programmes in your country? Here are five classic TV programmes which are famous in many parts of the world.

Baywatch

Internationally, Baywatch is the most popular TV show in history. Baywatch has appeared in 148 countries in every continent (except Antarctical), which means that about one half of the world's population has seen it at some time. From its first episode in 1989, this TV drama had everything; beautiful young men and women in swimming costumes, fantastic sunshine and perfect California beaches. And it wasn't just men who liked it. 65 percent of the people watching it were female.

Walking with Dinosaurs

Walking with Dinosaurs first appeared on British television in 1999. Using modern computer technology, it showed dinosaurs walking, eating, sleeping and fighting 65 million years before TV! The series cost £6 million and it took three years to make. Some scientists said that the programme invented facts about how the dinosaurs lived, but that wasn't a problem for the millions of people who watched it. When it appeared on The Discovery Channel, it became the most popular documentary programme ever on cable TV. The series has appeared in more than 90 countries and has been so successful that a 3D film version is being made.

Fawlty Towers

In this classic British comedy of the 1970s, John Cleese plays Basil Fawlty, the owner of a hotel in a small town by the sea. Basil is always angry: angry with his wife, Sybil, angry with the people who work in his hotel (including Manuel, the waiter from Spain) and even angry with the hotel guests. The last episode of Fawlty Towers appeared more than 30 years ago, but you can still see this classic British comedy all over the world.

Big Brother

Some people loved it, some people hated it, but one thing is certain: Big Brother, the world's first reality TV show, changed TV for ever. What happens when you put a group of young men and women in a house together and allow them no contact with the world outside? And what happens if they are on television 24 hours a day? A Dutchman called John de Mol had the original idea, and the first Big Brother appeared on TV in the Netherlands in 1999. More than 40 countries have had their own Big Brothers since then.

Pop Idol

In 2001, British music boss Simon Fuller had the idea of a TV 'talent show' for members of the public who wanted to be pop singers. Thousands of singers, good and bad, appeared in front of three judges and TV viewers could vote for the best ten by telephone, text message or over the internet. The idea was a big success internationally and the United States soon had its own American Idol. Similar shows appeared all over the world, from Russia to the Arab world. Diana Karazon, 19, from Jordan, won the first Arab Super Star in August 2004. Also in 2004, Simon Cowell created another TV talent show called The X Factor, which replaced Pop Idol, and this became even more popular around the world.

- b Read the text again and complete the information below with a name or number.

Listen and read My favourite days of the week

4a 13.1 Read and listen to the article.

My favourite days of the week

We asked three local people about their favourite day of the week. Here's what they said:

Amy, 28

Well, most people say their favourite day is Saturday or Sunday, when they have a break from work. Of course I love my weekends, but I think my favourite day of the week is actually Friday. I'm an accountant in an office and there's always a great atmosphere because it's the end of the week and people are excited about the weekend. Everyone's talking about their plans, that sort of thing. And we even look different – we all wear smart clothes from Monday to Thursday, but on Fridays it's OK to wear anything we want. Most people just come in jeans and T-shirts. And we all go out together at the end of the day. Some of my colleagues are just so funny!

Darek, 19

I'm a waiter, so my working hours are different to most people's. Basically, if most people are relaxing, I'm working! So in the restaurant, Fridays and weekends are a really busy time – we have a lot of parties, so we work long hours. It's fun because people are enjoying themselves. Sundays are a bit quieter. And then on Mondays the restaurant is closed and that's the best part of my week. I usually get up late, relax at home and maybe have a nap in the afternoon if I'm tired. I don't do much – just watch films – but sometimes that's exactly what I need. Perhaps it's not very healthy – I want to start playing football or something. Maybe I will, on Thursday afternoons.

Pietro, 38

Like everyone, I enjoy my weekends, but they're never very relaxing. There's always so much to do: tidying the house, getting meals ready, that sort of thing, because we often invite relatives round for lunch on Sundays. But the day I enjoy the most is Tuesday. I work different times every day and that's the day I finish early. I pick my kids up from school and take them swimming and we always have such a great time together. And when I'm back at work on Wednesday morning, I always feel better.

0	Match the people	(1–3) with their favourite day.	С	Who:
	1 Amya Mondayb Tuesdayc Wednesdayd Thursday	2 Darek		 1 can leave work early one day a week? 2 has to go to work at weekends? 3 thinks he/she should do some sport? 4 goes out with his/her colleagues once a week? 5 has to do lots of things at home at weekends? 6 doesn't have to wear smart clothes at work every day?

Bob, 63, England

The worst thing about my job is that people usually only call me when they have a problem in their kitchen or bathroom. The other night, someone called me at 10 p.m. to tell me that their washing machine wasn't working.

Water was coming out of it. But the best thing about my job is finishing a new bathroom or kitchen and seeing that my customers are pleased.

Marisa, 20, Philippines

I've looked after children all my life. When I was a child, I helped my parents with my five younger brothers and sisters. And now, looking after other people's children is my job. I work for a family with two children. The parents work full-time, so I take the older child to school and then spend the rest of the day with the younger one. She's two and she's learning to speak. I think I've got the best job in the world!

Marwan, 58, Egypt

People think that I work in court every day. In fact, I am in my office most days. I only go to court once or twice a week. But this is when I have to make important decisions. So I always need to listen very carefully to people.

Howard, 42, Jamaica

I've always done this job. Before, I had a taxi, but now I drive a bus. It's a nice job because you meet lots of people. But sometimes I have to work evenings and weekends and then I don't spend time with my family.

Maria, 33, Argentina

I studied languages at university. My first language is Spanish and I also know Portuguese and Chinese. There is a lot of business between my country and Brazil. But a lot of people in Argentina don't understand Portuguese.

So my job is to read documents in Portuguese and then write the same thing in Spanish.

Our top four hates

Last week, we asked our readers to tell us about things they really hate. We've had a huge response – it's clear that there are lots of things that lots of people really do not like. Here are the top four.

This annoys people more than anything else. We all know that roads can be dangerous places. And if cars get too close to each other, 'they can be very dangerous places. Most drivers leave a sensible distance between their car and the car in front. But some don't. Why? Why? Why?

Let's face it – we pay a lot to our phone networks and to our internet service providers. They always say they've got a super-fast connection. And if they're making us pay for ² it, we should make them provide it.

Come on, it's not really that difficult, is it? OK, babies aren't very good at it and their food goes all over the floor. But ³that doesn't last very long and most people can eat nicely and politely by the time they're five or six. But there are SOME people who eat with their mouth open. Argh! Please don't – it's disgusting! We really don't want to see the food inside your mouth!

Being polite to members of the public is important – and easy. It doesn't matter if 'it's in a shop, in a restaurant or on the phone. Staff should always be nice and polite to the customer. And it's good business, too. We'll probably go back to a shop if the service was good. But if the staff were rude, we tell our friends. And then they don't go back either.

- b Look at the words in bold in the article. What does the word refer to in each case?
 - 1 they
 - a people
 - b roads
 - c cars
 - 2 it
 - a internet bill
 - b phone network
 - c super-fast connection
 - 3 that
 - a eating nicely
 - b food going on the floor
 - c eating with the mouth open
 - 4 it
 - a good customer service
 - b a phone
 - c a shop

Success from abroad

Thomas Eckhardt: Thomas came to London from Germany almost four years ago. After doing a course in theatre costume design, he began working at the National Theatre in London a year ago. 'I really enjoy designing clothes and I've always loved the theatre, so this job is absolutely perfect for me,' he says. 'I started work on a new production of Romeo and Juliet two weeks ago and I'm really excited about it.'

Bianca and Richard Jones: Bianca Jones is originally from Lima, Peru. She came to England in 2007 and a year later she got married. For the last two years, she has been manager of La Finca restaurant with her English husband, Richard. 'We were London's only Peruvian restaurant. It's been so successful that last week we opened a new restaurant – La Finca II.'

Kerry Paterson: When Kerry first came to England from Australia in 2005, she was a backpacker, travelling round Europe. She came back three years later and started working as a swimming coach about a year after that. Nowadays, she has a second, part-time job: playing in a jazz band. 'About a month ago, a friend heard that I could play the piano and asked me to join his band. We play every weekend in local cafés and restaurants.'

I come from a really sporty family. We always eat meals together and at meals we usually talk about sports. My grandparents often visit us and they love sports, too. My grandfather often plays tennis and he's 70. And my grandmother usually goes to the gym in the morning before breakfast. We occasionally go to a football match together, which is fun. But we never watch sport on TV because we're too busy!

UNIT 2 RECORDING 1

The first TV soap opera

The first TV soap opera appeared on American television just after the Second World War. Its name was Faraway Hill and it began on 2nd October 1946.

A famous Broadway actress, Flora Campbell, played Karen St. John, a rich New York woman who went to live with her relatives in the country after her husband died. She soon met a handsome young farmer and, of course, the two immediately fell in love. Unfortunately, the farmer was already engaged to Karen's cousin, who knew nothing about the relationship. When she found out, things got very, very difficult for Karen.

The producers of Faraway Hill had very little money – each programme cost only 300 dollars – so they made them as quickly as possible. Because there was no time for the actors to learn their words each week, assistants wrote them on blackboards. Because of this, they often looked into the distance with a strange, romantic expression on their faces ... as they read their words from the boards on the other side of the studio!

Few stars have had careers as long and varied as Cher. In her career, she has been successful both as a singer and as an actress.

Born Cherilyn Sarkisian LaPiere in El Centro, California, on May 20th 1946, she left home for Hollywood at the age of 16. When she was only 17, she married songwriter and record producer Sonny Bono. As Sonny and Cher, they had several hits in the 1960s, including I Got You Babe in 1964. But in the 1970s, success wasn't so easy to find, and Cher and Sonny got divorced in 1975. Soon after, Cher married rock star Gregg Allman, but the marriage didn't last very long.

Since the mid-80s, Cher has had a second career as an actress, appearing in films like The Witches of Eastwick and Faithful. In 1988, she won a Best Actress Academy Award for the film Moonstruck.

More recently, Cher has returned to singing once more, and with great success. Her single Believe became US Number One in March 1999. In 2002, Cher started a 'farewell tour', which lasted for over two years! But even after that, she didn't stop and from 2008 until 2011, she performed at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas. In 2011, she started work on her 26th album. Since the 1960s, she has sold over 128 million albums worldwide. Her career has lasted half a century and still hasn't finished.

UNIT 11 RECORDING 1

Our top four hates

Last week, we asked our readers to tell us about things they really hate. We've had a huge response — it's clear that there are lots of things that lots of people really do not like. Here are the top four.

People who drive too close to the car in front

This annoys people more than anything else. We all know that roads can be dangerous places. And if cars get too close to each other, they can be very dangerous places. Most drivers leave a sensible distance between their car and the car in front. But some don't. Why? Why? Why?

Slow internet

Let's face it — we pay a lot to our phone networks and to our internet service providers. They always say they've got a super-fast connection. And if they're making us pay for it, we should make them provide it.

People who eat with their mouth open

Come on, it's not really that difficult, is it? OK, babies aren't very good at it, and their food goes all over the floor. But that doesn't last very long and most people can eat nicely and politely by the time they're five or six. But there are some people who eat with their mouths open. Argh! Please don't – it's disgusting! We really don't want to see the food inside your mouth!

Poor customer service

Being polite to members of the public is important – and easy. It doesn't matter if it's in a shop, in a restaurant or on the phone. Staff should always be nice and polite to the customer. And it's good business, too. We'll probably go back to a shop if the service was good. But if the staff were rude, we tell our friends. And then they don't go back either.

UNIT 14 RECORDING 5

Online shopping is getting more and more popular. But is it true to say that it's better than buying things in shops? It's a difficult question and there are arguments on both sides.

On one hand, internet shopping is usually cheaper. People often say that you should buy things from the cheapest place. So if the cheapest place is an online shop, that's where they buy from. Doing this can save you time as well as money because you don't have to leave your home.

On the other hand, when online shops do more business, traditional shops do less business. Lots of shops have closed in my town; and it's happening everywhere. It's really sad and I think it's happening because of internet shopping. For me, going to a shop and speaking to the shop assistant helps me decide what to buy.

In my opinion, online shopping might be cheaper and quicker. But it certainly isn't better than going to a traditional shop, where you get good customer service.

Taurus

You might have an argument with an important person today. If this happens, you'll need help. A friend or partner will be very useful to you. And who knows ... you might win the argument!

Gemini

This will be another busy work day for you: you'll have all the normal things to do, but there may also be an extra job or two. But don't worry, you'll succeed! And think how happy you'll be when you finish!

Cancer

You may have to choose between your public and your private life today. You won't spend much time with your loved ones until later in the week. Make sure they know you love them, or they may feel forgotten.

Leo

This will be your lucky day for education! If you're still at school, it'll be a good day for study – something you've always thought was too hard for you will be easy. If you've already left school, think about going back to your studies – you won't regret it!

Virgo

There will be some money worries today. Check what you're spending – you may need to spend some extra money on travel, but if you buy something for a loved one, they may not thank you for it!

ne day, as Gunther Hauser was driving down a road in Austria, saw a goat. It was just lying on the road. Mr Hauser stopped the and waited. But the goat didn't move. Eventually, he got out of the car to move the goat. But when the goat saw that the man was coming towards him, it suddenly got up. Before Mr Hauser could shut the car door, the goat got into the car. It was sitting in the driver's seat. When the man got into the car, the goat didn't get out. When he took a photo of the goat, it was eating the car seat! After some time, the man went to ask for help. He walked into the next house and when he arrived, the people thought he was a burglar. Finally, he telephoned the police, who, eventually, got the goat out of the car!
