

Listening A  [Track 16]

Rita: Hello?

Mark: Hi, Rita. It's Mark. What are you doing?

Rita: Oh, hi, Mark. I'm just studying.

Mark: Do you want to watch an old movie at my house tonight?

Rita: What movie?

Mark: Summer in Mexico. It's good. I watched it last week.

Rita: And you want to watch it again?

Mark: Yes. I loved it.

Rita: OK, I can be at your house at 8:00.

Mark: That's great. I can make dinner. Do you like hot dogs?

Rita: Oh, sorry. I never eat hot dogs. I don't eat meat.

Mark: Well, I can make dumplings with vegetables, or I can make cheese pizza.

Rita: Dumplings, please. I had pizza last night. And I can bring some fruit for dessert. I have apples and bananas at home.

Mark: I don't like apples, but I love bananas.

Rita: Good. So, how do I get to your house by bus? My sister has my car, and I can't ride my bike. My dad is fixing it.

Mark: No problem. Take the number 4 bus to the corner of First Avenue and Main Street. The bus stop is in front of the library, just across from my house.

Rita: That's easy. Thanks.

Mark: OK. See you at 8:00.

Rita: Bye!

Listening B  [Track 17]

Ben: Hello?

Karen: Hi, Ben. It's Karen. Is this a good time to talk?

Ben: Hi, Karen. I can't talk right now. I'm having a tennis lesson.

Karen: Oh, sorry. When is it going to end?

Ben: At 6:30.

Karen: OK. Can you call me back then?

Ben: Sorry, I can't. I'm having dinner with my parents tonight, and they like to eat at 7:00. . . . Hey, do you have any plans for dinner? Do you want to have dinner with us? My mom is going to make her famous tacos.

Karen: I'm really sorry, but I can't. I love your mom's food, but I'm having dinner with Billy tonight. Thanks for the invitation anyway. I'll call you tomorrow.

Ben: OK. Talk to you tomorrow.
