Hi!

Hi, Sam!

How's Texas? I like Australia, but I miss the United States – especially my friends in Austin!

This is a photo of my family – my parents, my sister, Lisa, and her husband, Jim. You know my parents, but you don't know my sister, right? She's a chef at an Italian restaurant, and Jim is a musician. He sings and plays the guitar at Lisa's restaurant every night. The food at her restaurant is really good. My parents and I eat there every week.

Speaking of good things . . . the clothes here in Sydney are cool! I love them. On the weekends, I sometimes go shopping with friends. I don't buy a lot of clothes, but I sometimes buy a T-shirt.

I do other things on the weekend, too. My friends and I sometimes go dancing at a club, but usually, we just hang out at home. We watch movies, we play games, or we just talk.

Oh, and every Thursday I play games online with a South Korean girl. Her online name is Pinky110. She's cool. And she speaks English, so we often chat.

Bye for now,

Nadia

Sue I buy cool clothing online from other countries. I have T-shirts from Turkey, Japan, and Brazil. My favorite T-shirt is from Brazil. It's green, yellow, white, and blue. Those are the colors of the Brazilian soccer team. And my favorite scarf is from Thailand. I shop online on Saturdays or Sundays because I use my sister's laptop. I don't have a computer.

Tina I love music, so I love downloading music! I usually use my laptop, but sometimes I download music to my cell phone. I download about 50 songs a week. I usually download music in the evening, after work. I can't download music at work. I don't have time, and my boss doesn't like it.
